Surplus Cheese Profits Illegal

Judge Rules 8 Firms Must Repay Money To U. S. Government

Wausau — U. S. District Judge Patrick T. Stone found today that the "paper transactions" of millions of pounds of surplus cheese in 1954 were illegal. He ordered eight companies to repay $1,300,000 in the so-called windfall profits to the government.

The court handed down its decision today in the case which occupied weeks of hearings during the winter, when the eight companies asked a summary judgment that they not be held liable for repayment.

The profits were made when the firms sold cheese to the commodity credit corporation just before a drop in the support price of 37 cents a pound and bought it back shortly afterward 34 cents without actually moving the cheese from their inventories.

Orders Payment

Judge Stone ruled in favor of a claim for payment, filed by the government, but he noted that the companies acted in good faith because the plaintiffs relied on an official announcement of the department of agriculture.

The department announced in February of 1954 that the support price would be dropped to 32 cents April 1, and that regulations would be changed to permit sale of cheese less than 10 days old. The firms then sold their cheese to the CCC, arranging to buy back the same cheese at the CCC's later price — 32 cents plus 2 cents a pound.

Judge Stone noted that quantities of aged cheese worth more than the support prices were included in the transactions because "the offerers knew the cheese would never leave their inventories."

The delivery and redelivery of the cheese, he said, was "unreal and fictitious, and added."

"It was as the defendant (government) contends, nothing but a paper transaction which ended in the governing owing the plaintiffs 21 cents a pound."

The result, he said, "did not achieve the main objective of the act, which was to support the prices paid farmers for their milk and butterfat. It was not the intent of congress to protect cheese company inventories."

The firms, and the amounts they were ordered to repay were: The Kraft Foods, Co. of Wisconsin, $404,547; the Borden Co., $314,817; the Cudahy Packing Co., of Chicago, $27,687; Armour & Co., $25,490; C. J. Berst & Co. of Portage, Wis., an Armour affiliate, $14,402; Safeway Stores of Green Bay, Wis., $81,227; the H. J. Heinz Co. of Pittsburgh, $24,865; L. D. Schreiber & Co. Inc. of Chicago, $42,952.

Bell Repeats 'No' To Regional Plan

Says Neenah Wouldn't Want Extra Expense; No Immediate Benefits

Neenah Mayor Chester Bell Thursday night voiced the only opposition to a master plan to guide and coordinate Fox Cities growth.

Bell, who has been outspoken about the plan before, contended the people of Neenah would not like it because of the extra expenditure involved, because "we shouldn't jam large city planning procedure onto small cities" and because he thought "no tangible benefits can be perceived."

His dissenting opinion was offered during a public meeting which drew about 100 people from the Fox Cities area to discuss the proposed master plan.

Besides mayors, aldermen, members of the Fox Cities Regional Planning commission and interested citizens, Kenneth Schellie of Metropolitan Planners, Inc., Indianapolis, was on hand. The firm is being considered to draw the master plan.

If the planning firm is hired, work would cost $72,000. S. F. Shattuck, Neenah, already has pledged to provide $30,000 for this purpose and member communities would finance the difference over the 3-year term.

Sees No Results

Bell contended "the regional planning commission has been in existence for two years and Neenah has spent $5,300. So far we have had absolutely nothing to show the citizens to arouse any enthusiasm for the plan. The people of Neenah don't know what's been done."

"It's important to begin in local communities and produce results people can see—get an old eyesore torn down and offer suggestions as to what to do with a vacant lot. Then we

Man Seized in Holdup Attempt In Milwaukee

Milwaukee — An attempted robbery of the Mitchell Street State bank, in the heart of Milwaukee's south side shopping district, was thwarted at noon today when a teller stalled the holdup man at a window. The gunman was taken into custody.

Armed with a sawed-off shotgun which he put on the counter of teller George Roubik's cage, the robber pushed out a note demanding money.

Roubik persisted with his questions and a woman standing in line behind the robber saw the gun and dashed out of the bank. She located Patrolman Stephen Kwasniewski around the corner, who ran back to the bank, collided with the holdup man at the door, and disarmed him.

The gunman, 6 feet tall and weighing about 240 pounds, identified himself to police as Travis N. Powell, 26, but gave no address.

Turk Cypriot Leaders Turn Down Partnership Proposal for Island

Nicosia, Cyprus — Turkish Cypriot leaders have rejected Britain's partnership plan for governing this embattled island. The Turkish government agreed to talk about it and the Greek Cypriots awaited word from Athens today.

A Greek government source said Premier Constantine Karamanlis' cabinet definitely would reject the plan, which calls for the Greek and Turkish governments to join Britain in governing the island.

Pressure on Greece

The NATO allies were putting strong pressure on Greece at least to join in discussions and Britain planned to go ahead with the plan in any event.

Archbishop Makarios, exiled leader of the Greek Cypriot movement to unite the island with Greece, conferred in Athens with Cypriot mayors. He said he would send his views on the plan to the British today. Thirty thousand British troops waited tensely to put down any new violence growing out of the 3-nation tug-of-war which threatens the Mediterranean anchor of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Riots between Greek and Turkish Cypriots has cost 17 lives this month.

The last week has been comparatively quiet, but today a 25-year-old Turkish Cypriot was critically wounded in the crowded market place at Limassol.

Senators Drive for Anti-Recession Cut In Federal Taxes

Vote Elimination of Levies On Passenger Tickets, Freight

Washington — Senators favoring anti-recession tax cuts renewed their drive today, encouraged by a surprise vote to wipe out levies on passenger tickets and freight.

The senate sharply rebuffed the Eisenhower administration and its own leaders last night as it voted repeal of the World War II transportation taxes despite pleas that such action might open the way to cuts elsewhere.

Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich.) pressed ahead with another proposal for cutting the automobile excise tax, while Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) said he planned another stab at reducing taxes on small business.

The senate was called into session an hour earlier than usual in an effort to complete action on these and other amendments to a house-passed bill to extend present corporation and major excise tax rates for a year beyond June 30.

Opposed by Leaders Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California and Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas opposed the amendments to repeal the 3 per cent freight tax and the 10 per cent levy on passenger tickets.

The amendment erasing the freight levy was adopted 59-25, with 33 Democrats and 26 Republicans joining forces to write it into the bill. Voting against it were 10 Democrats and 15 Republicans.

The vote approving repeal of the 10 per cent levy on passenger fares was 50-35. Twenty-seven Democrats and 23 Republicans voted for repeal, while 17 Democrats and 18 Republicans voted against it.

Secretary of the Treasury Anderson has estimated that repeal of the freight tax would cut revenues $487 million and the passenger fare levy $230 million, or a total of $717 million annually.

Elimination of the freight tax drew the most support, with proponents arguing that, as Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said, "it hits everyone" and affects the price of everything they buy.

May Relax Secrecy on Nuclear Information

Washington — The senate was set to act soon, possibly today, on President Eisenhower's bill to relax atom secrecy. It would clear the way for a weapons know-how sharing arrangement with Great Britain.

The house yesterday passed 345-12 a bill to authorize greater exchange of atomic information with allies. It would permit exchanges of actual weapons manufacturing data and materials with friendly nations already making weapons. For the present this means Britain.

Red Economic Warfare Threat Cited by Dulles

Secretary Asks 5-Year Extension Of Reciprocal Pact

Washington — Secretary of State Dulles told congress today it would be reckless to take lightly Russia's threat of economic warfare against the United States.

"The strategy of communist imperialism," he said, "involves the subversion of country after country until the United States is isolated and subject to economic strangulation."

Dulles was before the senate finance committee, urging a 5-year extension of the trade agreements act which expires this month.

The act authorizes the president to negotiate tariff reductions in order to stimulate trade. Dulles said the trade agreements program, together with the U. S. foreign aid, constitute "our basic answer" to Soviet Premier Khrushchev's economic warfare challenge.

The house has passed the trade agreements extension bill. The tariff cutting program was instituted 24 years ago and has been renewed 10 times by congressional action.

Dulles said "it would, to my mind, be unthinkable to discontinue it."

Ike and Defense Chiefs Confer

Quantico, Va. — President Eisenhower came to this marine base today for a rehearsal of America's global defense strategy.

The president arrived in the white collar raise goes to rain after a 45-minute drive over the 35 miles from Washington, he had intended to make the trip by helicopter but heavy rain washed out that plan.

Old soldier Eisenhower is here for a defense department annual conference which brings together all the top brass—military and civilian—in the nation's defense establishment.

The president was greeted on arrival by Secretary of Defense McElroy and Lt. Gen. Merrill B. Twining, commander of the marine corps schools.

The measure adds 599 top jobs to the federal career service, about 300 in the science and engineering field.

Congressman Urges Probe Into Links With Federal Officials Within 10 Years

BY LEWIS GULICK

Washington — A Republican member of a house investigating subcommittee called today for an inquiry into all of Bernard Goldfine's contacts with federal officials during the last 10 years.

Rep. John B. Bennett (Mich.) said "I'm of the opinion that (Sherman) Adams is not the only official of the federal government who has enjoyed Goldfine's hospitality."

Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide, has testified he accepted gifts and favors from Goldfine, a wealthy Boston industrialist, on the basis of a long friendship. He said he also got in touch with two federal agencies on matters relating to Goldfine, but denied he sought special treatment for the Bostonian.

Bennett spoke in an interview as the Pentagon disclosed that more than $21 million worth of textile contracts have been awarded to Goldfine's companies since the Eisenhower administration took over in January, 1953. The Pentagon supplied the figures on request, with no implication of influence or wrongdoing in connection with the awards.

In a separate development, the securities and exchange commission unanimously denied that it dropped a case against one of Goldfine's firms after an inquiry from the White House prompted by Adams.

Firm Fined $3,000

"On the contrary," the 5-man commission said, the case was "successfully prosecuted." Goldfine's East Boston Co. was fined $3,000 and is now filing on schedule reports required by the SEC.

The SEC reported Chairman Edward N. Gadsby and his aides have been asked to testify next Tuesday as the subcommittee resumes its investigation into how well independent regulatory agencies are following the law.

Political repercussions continued over Adams' actions and Eisenhower's decision to retain his top aide despite what Adams called his innocent but imprudent moves in contacting the SEC and the federal trade commission about matters involving Goldfine.

U.S. Establishes New Credit to Philippines

$75 Million Agreed on With Added $50 Million in Development Loan Funds; Statement Issued Today

Washington — P — The United States agreed today to establish a new $75 million line of credit for the Philippines and provide $50 million in development loan funds.

The development loans are subject to congressional action. The agreement was announced in a joint Philippine-U.S. statement issued by the White House at the conclusion of a 3-day state visit by Philippine President Carlos P. Garcia.

The statement said Garcia and President Eisenhower reviewed economic development in the Philippines over the past years and examined the current economic problems which face that nation.

Garcia has been seeking a reported $350 million in long term credits.

Hungarian Sees No More Major Trials

Chief Prosecutor Says Anyone Will Have to Answer for Evidence

Budapest — P — Communist Hungary's chief prosecutor said today no major trials are in prospect following the execution of former Premier Imre Nagy and three associates for the 1956 revolt against Russia.

"But we have already said," he added in an impromptu news conference, "that anyone against whom evidence is found will have to answer for it—no matter when."

Russian Farmers Given Greater Incentive to Increase Production

Khrushchev Removes Compulsory Delivery to Aid in Race With U. S.

Moscow — P — The Soviet communist party today announced another step in Premier Khrushchev's plans to beat U.S. agricultural production by giving Russian farmers more incentive to grow more.

The party's central committee announced collective farms no longer will be required to deliver a large part of their output to the government at a fixed low price.

Instead, a new pricing system will be established for an entire output of collective farms. It aims to introduce an element of competition for low-cost, efficient production.

Men Promoted

A report on the central committee meeting of about 250 members on Tuesday and Wednesday also said two men were promoted to alternate membership in the committee's ruling presidium, the key unit of power in Russia. It had 15 full members and nine alternates.

The two are N. V. Podgorny, first secretary of the Ukrainian communist party, and Premier D. S. Poliansky of the Russian federation, largest republic in the Soviet Union.

Law School Dean Calls Law Photo Ban Unrealistic

San Francisco — P — Dean David Ewm Snodgrass of the University of California's Hastings College of Law says the American Bar association's long time ban on news photographs in courtrooms is archaic and unrealistic.

"The ABA has succeeded in antagonizing all of the press photographers in the United States, the entire radio and television industries, and most of the editors of our daily newspapers," Dean Snodgrass wrote for the current issue of the Brief Case, a San Francisco bar association publication.

Practice in Past

In the past collective farms have sold their produce at three price levels. The government fixed a low price for products delivered on compulsory quotas. Additional voluntary deliveries to the government received a higher price. And surplus sold on the open market brought a still higher price.

The committee said the new pricing system would be less arbitrary, with prices bearing a closer relation to production costs. It criticized the government for maintaining a category of high prices, which it said permitted spoilage and other wasteful practices.

Proxmire Denies Part in Stage Worker On Panel Show Fired by CBS

Says He Had No Preference Between Candidates, Doesn't Run State Party

Washington — P — Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.) said today he took no part in the contest for Democratic national committeewoman in Wisconsin which resulted in election of a Negro housewife.

He also brushed aside allegations by some anti-Proxmire elements in the party that he was trying to run the Democratic show in the state.

Mrs. Vel Phillips, a Milwaukee Negro, was elected national committeewoman at the party's state convention in La Crosse last weekend in a close vote over Mrs. Marguerite Benson, veteran of 28 years of party work.

No Preference

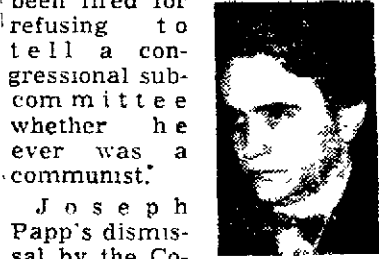

Referring to Mrs. Phillips' election, Proxmire said, "I took no part in it, directly or indirectly. I instructed those who work with me to take no part in the contest."

Proxmire said he had expressed no preference for either Mrs. Phillips or Mrs. Benson and described them both as "extremely well qualified."

Rep. Clement Zablocki (D-Wis.) said he supported Mrs. Benson and said he believed it was "most unfortunate that

Stage Worker On Panel Show Fired by CBS

New York — P — The stage manager of the television show, "I've Got a Secret," has been fired for refusing to tell a congressional subcommittee whether he ever was a communist.

Papp

Joseph Papp's dismissal by the Columbia Broadcasting system yesterday came just a day after Charles Dubin was fired as director of the NBC-TV quiz show, "Twenty One." Dubin had balked Wednesday before the subcommittee.

During two days of hearings by the house subcommittee on un-American activities, 17 witnesses invoked the fifth amendment against self-incrimination. The other witness took the first amendment guaranteeing freedom of speech.

Sullivan Drops Lief

Arthur Lief, American guest conductor for the Moiseyev Russian Dance company, also was dropped by the Ed Sullivan CBS-TV show for refusing to tell the subcommittee whether he is a communist. He was to appear June 29 with the dance company on the Sullivan show.

The witnesses also included Benjamin Steinberg, violinist in the orchestra of the Broadway musical show, "The Music Man," and Clifford Carpenter, an actor in "Sunrise at Campobello," a Broadway play. Steinberg refused to say whether he is a member of the communist party. Carpenter denied present membership but declined to say whether he had been a member in the past five years.

Papp, who also has managed the free Central park Shakespeare festivals here, told the subcommittee he is not now a member of the party, but he refused to say if he ever had been. Dubin also had said he is not now a communist but

Mayors Chosen For 4 Cities At Girls' State

Madison — P — Delegates attending Badger Girls' state elected mayors for four mythical cities Thursday.

They were Karen Bennett, Evansville; from Schurich, Mount Horeb; Sandra Self, Augusta; and Nancy Kohlff, Kenosha.

About 60 other posts were also filed. More than 350 Wisconsin high school girls are attending the four-day exercise in good government at the University of Wisconsin.

Man Sees No Mistreatment In Penning Up His Father

Stayton, Ore. — P — Daniel Cole free on bail today, said he didn't think he had been mistreating his father.

"Naturally I feel embarrassed," said the 60-year-old one-time preacher on being released late Thursday from jail. He was arrested Wednesday night and accused of penning up his 88-year-old father, Eugene, inside an electric fence.

"It was a damn hot wire," said Police Chief Everett Norfleet of the charged wire that kept the elderly man within a 100 by 100-foot enclosure. A battered old trailer house and an outdoor privy were within the enclosure which Cole said he put up to keep his father from wandering away.

The son posted $2,500 bail at Daily City, Calif.

and was released from the county jail at nearby Salem. He will be arraigned Monday on a charge of assault and battery.

Kicking Father

Police said when they arrested the younger man he had been kicking his father, then reviving him by pouring water on him.

The father was taken to a hospital where he was reported to be in fairly good condition after food and rest.

The son was a seabee in World War II and, Mayor Marcel Van Driesche said, was a chaplain in that organization. He preached at the Methodist church here a few times some 20 years ago and was police chief for a brief time, the mayor added. More recently he has been a movie projectionist.

Cole said his father had been living in the trailer for five years and hadn't been coming out for a while. The younger Cole said he has a brother, Royal Cole, at Daily City, Calif.

Quoted From Statement

The statement said: "In view of the inability of the United States to anticipate accurate financial availabilities and relative requirements beyond the next 12 months, immediate emphasis was placed on meeting the initial requirements of the Philippine program."

"For these initial requirements the Export-Import bank informed the Philippine government that it will establish a new line of credit of $75 million for financing private and public development projects."

"The Philippine government was also informed that subject to congressional action on the additional appropriations being requested, the development loan fund would examine specific projects submitted to it to determine whether they would merit development loan financing in an amount not to exceed $50 million."

The Philippine republic has an unused balance of $46 million in credit with the Export-Import bank, remaining from a $65 million dollar credit extended in 1956.

Defense Assist

The statement also said Eisenhower and Garcia concurred that because of the continued threat of communist military

Green Bay Girl Faces Hearing

Jean Gilson Held For Part in Plot To Free Prisoners

Green Bay — P — A 20-year-old girl faced arraignment today on a charge of aiding an attempted escape from the Brown county jail by two prisoners who plotted a break that would have involved 28 other inmates.

The warrant was issued Thursday for Jean Gilson, Green Bay, who was held for an appearance in Municipal court.

Details of the plot were furnished by Sheriff Artley Skenandore who said it was engineered by Richard Gafke, 27, and Joseph Leanna, the girl's 21-year old boyfriend. Skenandore said they planned to free 28 other prisoners.

Leanna and Gafke were jailed March 13 for a series of burglaries and a robbery. The sheriff said that on April 6, Easter Sunday, two girls smuggled three hacksaw wires to them.

The men were sentenced to terms up to 20 years and transferred to the state prison at Waupun before they could make their bid for escape. Authorities found two cell bars sawed through.

A second girl sought in connection with the plot was located, but authorities said they were satisfied she had no part in the plan.

"We Serve to Serve Again"

Fenneman's Own Show Bows July 6 on ABC-TV

BY JINGO

George Fenneman, the Groucho Marx master of ceremonies since 1947, will be master of ceremonies for his own show, "Anybody Can Play," which bows July 6 on ABC-TV.

"Anybody Can Play" is an audience participation show in which home viewers will be able to compete for a $10,000 first prize. They'll also be eligible to win other cash prizes, convertibles, kitchens and condiments.

The show is the idea of Producer John Guedel of Groucho's "You Bet Your Life." He invented the singing commercial as well as the audience participation show.

Fenneman, by the way of useless yet interesting statistics, started as a staff announcer for a San Francisco radio station in 1942.

Jingo's Jewels: Buddy Hackett, who played "Stanley" on NBC-TV last season, has signed for Jackie Gleason's new show. The Gleason series starts Oct. 3 over CBS-TV. The industrial rebirth of Germany is the subject of Edward R. Murrow's "See It Now" program over CBS-TV July 7.

Dinah Shore's replacements for the summer take over Sunday night for 15 weeks. They are John Raitt, Janet Blair and Edie Adams. You'll see Jonathan Winters, Stan Freberg, Rowan and Martin and Dorothy Kersten as occasional guests in the series.

Severe Drought Threatens Crops In South Korea

Tokyo—A severe drought today gripped South Korea and parts of Japan, threatening crops and water supplies.

The water bureau said rationing may be necessary in this capital, which consumes 1,800,000 tons of water a day.

There are but 33 million tons of water in three reservoirs normally holding 200 million tons. Tokyo has had less than an inch of rain in the past 30 days, normally the rainy season.

In Seoul, power companies were instructed to limit home electric service unless heavy rains come by July 1. Farm experts said the drought has cut wheat and barley crops. The main food crop, rice, will be seriously affected unless rains come soon. Most rice paddies are not irrigated in South Korea.

The rainfall average in South Korea since May 1 is 1.6 inches, compared with the normal total of 9.2 inches for May and June.

VFW Seeks War Bonus

Campaign Will Begin At Convention in Green Bay This Month

Madison—The Veterans of Foreign Wars state convention at Green Bay starting June 25 probably will revive a campaign for state legislation to authorize a war service bonus for Wisconsin service veterans, organization leaders said today.

VFW sources, reporting on plans for the rally expected to draw up to 5,000 delegates and visitors, said the organization will likely renew efforts to work with other organizations of veterans to renew such demands on the state legislature which has ignored propositions in the past.

Other Resolutions

There were strong campaigns for bonus legislation immediately following World War II, but the pressure subsided considerably in the last several meetings of the state law-making branch.

The Green Bay rally will last through June 28.

The organization publicity organ has also reported these other resolutions as likely to be considered and adopted:

Asking that the state help in running the service organization of the VFW: tax exemption for real estate owned by paraplegics; for state department assistance to localities in financing conventions for the organization; further enlargement of the state veterans' housing assistance program, with further legislative exploration of new methods of financing the aid program.

The department's annual report also will show, it was said, considerable success in sponsoring the organization's legislative program last year.

Kentucky Pigs Turn Teetotaler by Force

Stanford, Ky.—A group of pigs here have taken the pledge. At least, their supply has been cut off.

Police said they destroyed 200 gallons of whisky mash being fed to pigs and charged Verda Owsley, 50, with possessing untaxed whisky and setting up and operating a still.

Officers said the mash was being fed to the pigs which were in a pen next to Owsley's house.

Girls' Softball Team Wins 2nd League Contest

Kaukauna Downs Menasha Rec 6-4 In Close Battle

Kaukauna — The Kaukauna Girls' Softball team won its second league game at Menasha Wednesday night by downing the Menasha Rec team 6 to 4.

The game was up and tuck all the way with both teams getting six hits. Kaukauna scored two runs in the first inning when Pearl Meulemans reached first when hit by a pitched ball, advanced to third on a single by Marilyn Hilgenberg and both runners tallied on a double by Grace Baeten. Menasha tied the score in the bottom of the inning when Sandy Lorensen reached first on an error, advanced on an error and both runners scored on a double by Betty Gracyalny. Kaukauna again moved into a 1-run lead in the top of the second but Menasha came back

Stern Warning From Police About Calls

Combined Locks—Two anonymous telephone calls in the last two months that have resulted in emergency runs by an ambulance to homes here have brought a stern warning from village police.

The second call came about 3:15 Wednesday afternoon to Larry's Ambulance service of Appleton asking that an ambulance be sent to a Combined Locks home where a man had suffered a heart attack.

When the ambulance arrived at the address it was discovered that no such call had been made from the home. A similar situation resulted about two months ago.

Police said the penalty for making such false calls can result in as much as a $1,000 fine. Police said they are checking several leads into the anonymous calls. Police Chief Ernest Danielson also said the possibility of offering a reward for information leading to the apprehension of the caller is being considered.

Women Foresters View Slides on Europe's Shrines

Kaukauna — Colored movies and slides depicting famous religious shrines in Europe were shown at a meeting of Sacred Heart Order of Foresters, of St. Mary's church Wednesday evening.

The slides and pictures were shown by Mrs. Olive Mill and Miss Clara Zentler who took them while on a tour of Europe. Members voted to donate to the migrant workers fund which is under the direction of the Rev. Richard Gildsford, Little Chute.

The Rev. Mr. Gildsford spends the summer months working with migrant workers from Mexico and other countries. Each year Catholic organizations donate clothing, religious goods and money to help workers living in Door county and other areas.

Mrs. Magadeine Robedeaux was social committee chairman assisted by Mrs. Genevieve Andersen and Miss Leona DeBrue. The next meeting will be held at LaFollette park July 16 when a covered dish picnic will be held.

Legion Team to Face New London

Little Chute — The Junior American Legion baseball team will try for its second win of the season Saturday afternoon when New London invades the local field.

The Chuteurs have a 1-2 record while New London holds the same mark. The first win by the Dutchmen came at Kaukauna Wednesday night when they turned in a 16 to 11 triumph.

Cub Pack 27 to Stage Circus

Kaukauna — Members of Cub Scout Pack 27 of St. Mary's Catholic church will hold a circus from 1 to 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at LaFollette park.

Various Booths have been erected to permit visitors to purchase refreshments, novelties or try their hands at games of skill. Each den will put on some act similar to those offered at a regular circus.

Boys will assemble in front of St. Mary's church at 1 o'clock in the afternoon to parade to the park. Cubs will be in circus costume for the parade to help attract the public to the circus site.

Little Chute Cub Pack To Hold Paper Drive

Little Chute — Cub Scouts of Pack 51 will conduct a paper drive Saturday.

Fathers of the Scouts will assist the boys. Proceeds of the drive will be for summer activities of the pack. Residents are asked to have the paper in bundles or boxes and placed on the curb.

Kaukauna Births

Kaukauna — The following births were reported today at the Kaukauna Community hospital.

Sons to: Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Tretin, 1516 E. Main street, Little Chute.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Van Stiphout, 2101 W. Seventh street, Kaukauna.

Irish Win to Take Loop Lead

Previous Leaders Drop 2nd Straight In Softball Wheel

Kaukauna — Shamrock bar moved into first place in the City Softball league Wednesday night downing Arnies 15 to 2 while Reds defeated Nagels for the second straight night, this time by an 8 to 4 count.

Teh Irish now have eight wins and one loss. Reds and Nagels have records of 7 and 2 and 8 and 2 respectively and Arnies have two wins and seven losses.

Shamrock had little trouble with Arnies, the game called at the end of five innings by the 1-sided score. The winners scored four runs in the first inning, four in the second, one in the third and six in the fourth. The losers scored one in the second and one in the fifth.

Jack Coenen had two homers and a single in four trips to pace the winners while Dave Derus had two triples to account for half of the hits made by the losers.

Nagels Lose Again

Reds took the measure of the previous league leaders for the second night in a row, using a big third inning to clinch the decision. The winners scored one run in the first frame, five in the third and one each in the fourth and sixth.

The losers tallied a run in the second, third, fourth and fifth innings. The winners pounded out 12 hits compared to five for the losers. Top batter for the winners was Joe Niesz with three hits in four trips while

Community Band 2nd Rehearsal Planned Monday

Kaukauna — Approximately 40 persons turned out for the first rehearsal of the Kaukauna Community band and more are anticipated for the second session at 7 o'clock Monday evening in the band room of the high school, according to David Ludke, director.

The newly formed unit is working under the direction of the recreation department and is open to all musicians in the city. The band will hold its first concert of the summer from 8:15 to 9:15 Wednesday night at LaFollette park with marches and waltzes planned with several solo numbers.

Five different players hit safely for the losers.

Two West DePere Men Fined for Speeding

Kaukauna — Two West DePere men signed waivers stipulating their guilt and deposited $14.75 at the Kaukauna police station after being arrested by local police for speeding. Paying fines were Gordon Robertson, 18, and David Josephs, 20. Both men will have three points charged against their record toward revocation of driver's license.

Grass Fire Run

Kaukauna — The Kaukauna fire department was called at 1:15 Wednesday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire on Joyce street. Firemen used brooms to extinguish the fire, cause of which was unknown.

Threat of Force Might Secure Fliers' Freedom

Soviets Insist U. S. Deal With Puppet Regime for Prisoners

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington — There have been many occasions in the history of the United States when the forcible retention of American citizens anywhere in a foreign land met with a prompt resistance by the government here.

Nine U. S. army men in an unarmed helicopter strayed recently into East Germany through error, but the Soviet government America's wartime ally in Europe—refuses to give up the men it imprisoned on June 8.

The United States regards the East German territory as still under the 4-power occupation agreement. No peace treaty has been signed covering that area, and the military armistice is still in effect. The Soviets have set up a puppet government in East Germany, but this does not alter the status of the four-power agreement.

Thus an American military mission sits in Potsdam, which is within East German territory, and is empowered to deal with all questions of a military nature arising therein. The Soviets, however, are repudiating the rights of the military mission and are insisting that the American government's dealings be with the East German regime.

Temporary Authority

The Soviets in 1945 were temporarily given administrative authority over the so-called Soviet zone, which includes East Germany. But this authority is revocable. The four allied powers are the true custodians of the so-called Soviet zone. Allies do not usually deny to each other the right of access to any part of their own military zones. If they do, they cease to be allies. Actually, under the 4-power agreement the Soviets still are responsible for the quick return of American servicemen who may wander into their zone and the United States has so informed the Soviet government.

The United States has every right under the broad principles of international law to use military force to protect the lives of its citizens who happen to be in foreign lands. In the present instance, moreover, the United States, as a member of the alliance that fought World War II, has every right to recover any of its military personnel. This has been demanded of the Soviet rulers, but they are attempting to wash their hands of any responsibility.

If, therefore, the Moscow government insists that it has relinquished all administrative authority over the Soviet zone in East Germany, then such authority reverts completely to the other three military powers—Great Britain, France and the United States.

It is inconceivable that the United States would take any military steps alone, and it would probably consult its two allies about joint action. Many people will say that such a contingency—the forcible recovery of the nine Americans—is remote, but this does not dispose of the legal situation that has been introduced. For the three powers now have been told, in effect, by the Soviet Union that it has ended its occupation of the Soviet zone. This raises a legal problem that cannot be ignored.

The three powers, of course, are in a position now to take the Soviets at their word and to discuss among themselves what military measures should be taken to recover control of the area which was previously occupied by the Soviets but which has never been given to any puppet regime or to any other authority in East Germany to administer except the Soviets.

Moscow Maneuver

The Moscow government has been trying to maneuver the United States into a position which would require recognition of the East German government as the ransom price for the recovery of the nine army men, who are in prison though they have committed no crime and violated no tenet of international law. As for West Germany, all four powers have relinquished authority over it and have recognized the Federal Republic.

The United States could deal with the East German authorities, as Secretary Dulles says, just as it might negotiate with any 'kidnapper.' But to do so raises a question that will not be settled by the mere release of the nine Americans. The real question is how Great Britain, France and the United States shall deal henceforth with the zone previously occupied by the Soviets.

The situation could be clarified by a proposal to send American troops to rescue the nine airmen. For they are being held apparently by a "bandit" government which has no rights under the original 4-power agreement. The Soviets might be inclined then to re-enter the picture, as they have a right to do. This could speed the release of the nine Americans.

Development of Industry to be Topic at Meeting

Little Chute — A special meeting regarding the possibilities of industrial development here will be held at 8 o'clock Monday night at the village hall.

R. J. Colbert, Madison, will be the guest speaker at the session and he will show a film Colbert is connected with the Bureau of Community Development.

The meeting is open to the public. Village President Paul Kostka has indicated that he and members of the village board will be on hand as well as other village officials.

Kostka has hailed the meeting as "long overdue" and expressed the hope that many residents will take an active interest in getting an industrial program underway.

Sheet Metal Workers Picnic on Saturday

Little Chute — The family picnic of the Fox Valley Sheet Metal Contractors association will be Saturday afternoon and not Sunday as previously announced.

The outing will be at High Cliff park from 1 o'clock in the afternoon until 7 o'clock in the evening. Over 100 families are expected to attend.

Kimberly School Job Had Spirited Bidding

Kimberly — The addition to the Kimberly public school attracted spirited bidding. The total of low bids was $363,830.

There were 30 firms that entered bids for the four contracts. The general contract and the plumbing contract each attracted seven bidders and the electric and heating contracts each attracted eight firms.

The closest competition came for the electric contract. Mullen Electric of Appleton was low bidder at $36,470 and Lakeside Electric of Two Rivers was second only $10 higher at $36,480. A typographical error Thursday listed the Lakeside bid at $36,380.

False Alarm

Combined Locks — The volunteer fire department answered a false alarm call to a box near Prospect and Lom streets at 7:30 Thursday morning.

About 90 Golfers Turn Out For FVGC Women's Activities

Kaukauna — About 90 members turned out for Women's day activities at the Fox Valley Golf club Wednesday afternoon and evening, the majority completing a round of golf although a few were rained out.

A short business meeting was held at which plans for a local guest day on July 9 was scheduled and invitations from Oshkosh and Green Bay Shorewood golf clubs were read. Local women are invited to take part in these clubs' activities on June 24 and 25, respectively. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Josephine Tobin, Fox Valley president, by June 20.

Two matches were held in the June flight tournament in class A. Winners were Mrs. John Masaros over Mrs. Marie Gossens and Mrs. Robert Derus over Mrs. Robert Bootz. Golf prize winners were Mrs. Robert Derus, Miss Helen Gosz and Miss Barbara Van Handel.

Special prizes went to Mrs. Elmer Hoffmann, Mrs. Lester Forde and Mrs. Richard Lamers. Prizes at bridge went to Mrs. Edward Oliva and Mrs. Arnold Hubers and schafskopf winners were Mrs. Ray Schwanke and Miss Mary Lummerding.

Mrs. Harold Verstegen will be social committee chairman for next week assisted by Miss Barbara Van Handel, Mrs. Herbert Gerend, Mrs. Phil Haas and Miss Marian Lemke.

County Police Check Vehicles for Safety

Little Chute — County police conducted a safety check Wednesday afternoon and found 15 defects in 103 vehicles, according to a report filed with village police.

Swimming Team Being Formed

Meets Planned With Other Area Cities For Summer Season

Kaukauna — Plans are underway by the Kaukauna recreation department to again sponsor a swimming team to compete in meets with teams from throughout the area on a home and home basis.

Jack Coenen and Mike McGoe have been named coaches for the squad which currently has 23 members. Practice sessions are being held at the pool on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 5 to 6 o'clock and after several drills, team members will be clocked in various events to determine in which events they will compete.

Several of the squad members competed with the team last year. Competition will be held in different age brackets for both boys and girls. Team members include Ann Bachhuber, Barbara Boyd, Jane Barrieau, Daniel Reichel, Doug Ludvigson, Joan Ludvigson, Paul Koch, Faun Pechman, Linda Morgan, Patricia Weltstein, Jeff Tepolt, Rod Tepolt and Gary Nowack.

City Parking to Be Considered at C of C Meeting

Kaukauna — Members of the Kaukauna Chamber of Commerce will meet at 8 o'clock Monday evening at the Elks clubrooms to speak on matters of general interest with particular emphasis on parking.

Plans are being made to have Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon and Harold V. Engerson, chief of police, present at the meeting to help solve some of the parking questions. A movie will be shown and lunch will be available after the meeting.

Only about 13 members turned out for the May meeting and to help stimulate interest in activities of the organization, each person represented at the May session has promised to bring one other Chamber of Commerce member to this gathering.

Kimberly Legion Meets Fondy Club

Kimberly — Unbeaten Fondy du Lac will be the foe for the Kimberly Junior American Legion team here Saturday afternoon.

Fondy has a 3-0 record while the Papermakers are 1-2 for the season. The Kimberly team scored its first win Wednesday night as Marv Smits blanked Mayville 6 to 0.

Jeff Vander Velden or Smits will probably pitch against "Hub" King of Fondy.

Of the coaches Competition is held in all swimming events and in high and low diving.

Kimberly Band Will Give Concert Sunday

Kimberly — Members of the Kimberly Community band are asked to meet at the clubhouse park at 1:45 Sunday afternoon. A concert will be given at 2 o'clock. There will be no concert in the evening as previously planned.

The concert scheduled for Wednesday evening on the parking lot near the public school was postponed because of rain. The concert will be given next Wednesday at 7:30 in the evening.

Rain Fails to Stop High Scoring Game

Kimberly — Rain Wednesday night failed to dampen the efforts of the hitters in the 16-inch softball league game played at the Athletic field.

Dud's Inn won a 24 to 21 slugfest from the Wooden Shoe Bar. Van Deraa was the winning pitcher and Christam took the loss.

Two other league games were postponed because of the downpour.

The Mask Slips

For a brief moment the mask of reasonableness and friendship slipped, and communism's real face, coldly murderous, showed through. For a moment one could hear again the Red tanks rumbling into Budapest, the screams of the Freedom Fighters falling under their treads, the despairing cries for help over the free radio stations. For a moment the world relived the terrible days of October, 1956, and was reminded again that communism means brutality, cynicism, death.

No doubt it pained Comrade Khrushchev, who has been trying so hard to erase from men's memories the rape of Hungary, to order the executions of Imre Nagy and Pal Maleter, and to announce the grisly deed to the world. Certainly it destroyed much that he has accomplished in the last two years. But men who rise to power through ruthlessness and blood-letting dare not let any potential enemy gain a foothold from which they in turn might achieve supreme power.

Nagy (himself an old communist) and Maleter committed the greatest crime of all in communist eyes — they led a popular uprising that proved to the world how spurious are communist claims of representing "the people," but far worse, which threatened to bring down the entire complex power structure of the communist empire, at the pinnacle of which Comrade Khrushchev presently sits.

But when the communist mask slipped, ours did a little too, for let us never forget that Nagy's and Maleter's blood is on our hands also. At least Khrushchev and his pals are less hypocritical than we; they make little pretense of being other than the bestial, amoral clods they are, at least they do not kid themselves about it. But what of the United States and the other free nations, who with a little boldness and some courage might have delivered the Hungarians from their ordeal and at the same time have won a great victory for liberty? He who stands and watches his friend murdered, and does nothing but shout imprecations at the murderer, must live his life out with the inner knowledge of his cowardice eating away at his confidence and stability. Our failure to extend a helping hand to Hungary in those desperate days of 1956 is something that we can never escape, never really forget.

The tragedy before us is not that two more heads have joined the hundreds of thousands that have rolled by order of autocracy since civilization began; it is not just a tragedy of Hungary, or of Russia; it is one that belongs to all decent men and women everywhere, especially those of us who might have helped and didn't.

The Special Session Results

A former state Democratic chairman regarded by many members of the party as one of its most influential philosophers recently complained that it is difficult for the Democrats to exploit state government issues because the state government's functions are largely of a service nature that do not lend themselves to partisan debate or disagreement.

It seemed to us that James Doyle was there making virtue of necessity. What he could have said, had he been completely candid, is that the Republicans for the last 20 years have been running the state government in such a way as to be relatively invulnerable to any significant attacks from the minority party.

The results of the special session of the legislature at Madison in recent days illustrate the point well, we think. There are doubtless those among the citizens of Wisconsin who had their doubts that the matters submitted to that session by the governor were exigent enough to warrant the trouble and the expense and the noise of a special legislative session. Yet the Democrats, as the only opposing party, are in a poor position to complain. They had been clamoring for a special session and the governor to some degree lifted his proposals from the demands of the minority. On the final roll calls, the Democrats were required to vote for the governor's propositions, along with the Republicans. Contrary to most of the special sessions of Wisconsin history, therefore, this one produced little to quarrel about before the voters in the succeeding campaign.

The governor may very well point out, to those who doubted the validity of the special session emergency, that his hands were tied, to a degree. The idea of extending the duration and raising the level of unemployment compensation benefits had been endorsed by the national administration and the Congress, which had offered states money advances to manage the liberalization of the program proposed.

The Thomson administration would have been in a politically dangerous position had it refused to consider such policy changes under such circumstances.

As it turned out, Gov. Thomson acted promptly. The Wisconsin amendments will be the first among the states of the country to become effective. To the extent that these changes are needed to relieve hardship, they came with admirable speed.

The Place of the Salesman

"People are tired of not being sold. If we sell to the 92 per cent now employed, the other 8 per cent will be called back to work!"

That is the message being spread across the nation by National Crusade for Sales, Inc., of New York. It is a good message for everyone to ponder but especially good for salesmen. Selling in the face of the present recession is a difficult task. The man who looks upon spending as an act of sacrificing his security cannot be a successful salesman. His heart is with the reluctant customer and so he automatically joins the customer in building sales resistance.

On the other hand, there can be no doubt that a large part of our economic troubles are due to delayed buying. Most of the high inventories are the result of a very general movement to make what we have do instead of replacing worn articles as we normally would. Here is where the National Sales Crusade comes in. The salesman is entitled to look upon himself as the very key to the largest part of our present economic problem.

A well-known psychologist calls salesmen the sparkplugs of civilization. They are the force that opens people's minds to new needs and thus creates markets for new products. Much of this nation's prosperity has been due to the driving force of the salesman. Salesmanship will not cure the recession alone. But it will go a long way toward curing it. Thus salesmen are entitled to look upon themselves as crusaders who are providing an important part of the leadership of the 92 per cent of the employed persons who alone can put the 8 per cent back on the job.

Proposal Could Stifle Criticism of Government

From the Red Bud, Ill., Pillgrim.

Encroachment by government — federal, state and local — on dissemination of public information through press, radio and television has been the subject of much discussion.

Now it seems there is danger from a new source. If a new ruling of the Bureau of Internal Revenue is allowed to stand, it could mean that to say something in criticism of the government will be so expensive none of us any longer can afford it.

A Bureau of Internal Revenue proposal would disallow as a business expense all institutional advertising which might be considered to influence public opinion on any legislation.

The ruling was sought and has been publicly announced by Senator Kefauver of Tennessee and would specifically prohibit public power companies from telling the public about tax advantages of the Tennessee Valley Authority and other federal power projects. Such advertisements would not be deductible as "ordinary and necessary" business expenses.

Sen. Kefauver's position in seeking the ruling is not difficult to understand. No candidate for office, Republican or Democrat, would stand a chance in the TVA area, which includes parts of seven states, if he would oppose it, although every taxpayer in the United States has contributed for the last 25 years to make it one of the largest public power monopolies in the nation.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue ruling is unhealthy from this point of view. It could make any criticism of the government so expensive no person or corporation could indulge in it.

While at the same time public relations departments of the government can prepare column after column of pro-government copy at the taxpayer's expense for dissemination over the countryside, TVA has just prepared a packet of press releases of 25,000 words, enough to fill 25 news columns in commemoration of its 25th anniversary, at the taxpayer's expense.

America's Young Fry Way Ahead of Doctor On Matter of Spinach

From the Boston Daily Globe.

That Chicago doctor who announces solemnly, after much scientific research, that spinach is overrated and doesn't compare for a minute with potatoes and squash as a source of iron in the diet of children, won't draw any cheers from America's young fry. They're years ahead of him, despite lingering parental obsessions in this matter.

The revolt of the subteen-agers against that insipid, defeated-looking vegetable can even be dated. It was announced, half a decade ago by a famous New Yorker cartoon which pictured two misguided parents remonstrating with their disillusioned off-spring. "You say it's broccoli. I say it's spinach and the hell with it" was his ultimatum. That historic utterance, like the Declaration of Independence, ended an era. It proclaimed a new day for all under 11.

Suggestion for parents: Now try feeding junior stewed dandelions, and see what happens!

'They Were Purely Routine Calls'

Has Faith People Will Withstand Lurid Books, Movies, Censorship

From the Green Bay Press-Gazette.

Appleton has run into another controversy with its city ordinance permitting a small group of authorities to view and decide upon the advisability of showing certain motion pictures. Some months ago "Baby Doll" was banned outright. Now "And God Created Woman" has been listed as permissible for adults only. Letters to the newspaper have almost invariably confused the issue by demanding to know why the newspaper, which has taken a stand against such censorship, is on the side of juvenile delinquency and the over-emphasis on sex of modern society.

It is confusing that many of the liberties we hold dear must be upheld for causes which may be contrary to our beliefs. Our objections to the treaties and executive agreements by which United States servicemen may be tried in foreign courts and by foreign laws seem to put us on the side of the law-breakers. But our constitutional provisions were evolved, not to protect the popular side or the group in power, but the weak, the minorities and those who espoused unpopular opinions.

Many times this protection runs into difficulty. Wars bring restraints which are questionable in peacetime; today's cold war and communist subversion raise conflicts between aspects of national security and civil rights. What is sometimes regarded as a lowering of our moral climate has aroused opposition to books, comics, movies and TV shows. Undoubtedly there are many people who would prefer such a censorship as recently exercised by Prince Ranier of Monaco in deleting some scenes of a French film so that his wife could view it.

An editorial in the Catholic Register has rightly pointed out the vast difference between moral values as interpreted by the courts and by our ideas of what is truly right. But this must be constantly maintained simply because moral values, except very basic ones, differ so widely among religions, regions and individuals. As we have said before, some methods of birth control are morally wrong to one church, while intoxicating beverages in any form are deemed sinful to others. Movements to forward integration are certainly likely to incite violence in the south, while fluoridation has led to riots in other areas. Churches or other groups may certainly restrict their own membership from viewing certain shows or reading certain books. Nor should there be any objection to ordinances which permit "adult only" tags on movies or books or magazines. Our public libraries have almost always limited some material to age groups.

But the outright banning of questionable material is something that should be left to the conservative opinion of the courts. It may be that the fact that the courts usually have leaned in favor of tolerance of unpopular opinions that arouses the howls for some other form of censorship. A supreme court decision declared unconstitutional a New York statute which prohibited the dissemination of printed material "devoted to the publication . . . of criminal news . . ." or which incited "violent and depraved crimes against a person . . ." a decision apparently unrecognized by Gov. Thomson or members of Wisconsin's legislature when they wrote into law a similar statute outlawing crime comic books. Oliver Wendell Holmes, speaking to a far more censorship-minded court some years earlier said "I think we should be eternally vigilant against attempts to check the expression of opinions that we loathe and believe to be fraught with death."

In speaking against legal or coercive censorship we may appear to be on the side of the Brigitte Bardots and the Grace Metaliouses whose real tragedy is not the sordid, graphic scenes they portray but the despair and disturbed frame of mind which instigated them. But we have enduring faith that the United States can withstand such onslaughts on morality and decent living. We have faith that it can likewise endure the pressures from those who would censor and inadvertently but surely destroy our liberty. Risk must always be a prime element in democracy.

Nothing is more disconcerting to a person driving than to have a bee put the bite on him. Many people with an experience in getting stung will applaud a West German scientist who has developed a stingless bee. Dr. Eric Wohlgermuth, director of the Lower Saxony institute, said the new strain of bees produces as much or more honey and even can be held in the hand and stroked. It also is more of a home body, nondelinquent, staying close to the hive rather than going around buzzing people and "letting 'em have it."

Dr. Wohlgermuth busied himself with streamlining the bee for six years, so it would be idle to accuse him of nature-faking. Next thing you know, other ingenious Germans — intrigued by the stingless bee — may develop such modern improvements on nature as a nonbutting goat, a hedge-hog minus quills or a sprayless polecat.

Looking Backward

Chicago Orator to Speak in City

79 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of June 21, 1879.

We feel like congratulating the Phoenix Society upon its fortunate selection of the Rev. Brooke Hecford as orator.

He will address the Society and the public generally on Tuesday next at the College Chapel on the subject, "Englishmen's Spectacles."

The Rev. gentleman is one of the most brilliant pulpit orators of the city of Chicago and our citizens will greatly miss it if they do not crowd the Chapel to its utmost capacity on the occasion of speaker's first appearance before an Appleton audience.

It may be a relief to know that through the generosity of the Phoenix Society, the lecture will be free.

Mrs. Phillips' Election Has Emotional Aspects

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — The election of a comely Negro woman politician to the position of Democratic national committee woman for Wisconsin at the La Crosse convention last weekend was an emotional bing as much as a planned political act related to the health and vigor and electoral prospects of the party in this campaign season.

Mrs. Vel Phillips, a comparative new-comer to the party, was the symbol of the idealistic urges of many of the younger party members who saw to it that the issue was put in such a way that many of the uncommitted or doubtful delegates were reluctant to stand up against the nomination.

There was perhaps no incident at the party's convention upon which delegates were questioned more persistently by the newsmen attending.

The results ran pretty much the same. The first reaction was a claim that this action would help win votes in Wisconsin. But under more questioning, there was usually the observation that this was an expression of defiance of the southern conservatives in the party and a clarion call to the organization of a truly liberal Democratic party — even if its southern wing must be cut off in the process.

THE DIFFICULTY

Many of the delegates had their difficulties in expressing themselves. The issue is a highly delicate one, that also impedes to some degree a thoroughly factual discussion in print. This correspondent would be exceedingly regretful if some of the considerations involved were misunderstood in this dispatch.

It was perfectly evident,

German Scientist Busy as a Bee on Stingless Species

From the Portsmouth N. H. Herald

Nothing is more disconcerting to a person driving than to have a bee put the bite on him. Many people with an experience in getting stung will applaud a West German scientist who has developed a stingless bee.

Dr. Eric Wohlgermuth, director of the Lower Saxony institute, said the new strain of bees produces as much or more honey and even can be held in the hand and stroked. It also is more of a home body, nondelinquent, staying close to the hive rather than going around buzzing people and "letting 'em have it."

Dr. Wohlgermuth busied himself with streamlining the bee for six years, so it would be idle to accuse him of nature-faking. Next thing you know, other ingenious Germans — intrigued by the stingless bee — may develop such modern improvements on nature as a nonbutting goat, a hedge-hog minus quills or a sprayless polecat.

for example, that had Mrs. Phillips come to the convention as a white woman she would not have been put in nomination.

There were plenty of women present who would have had superior claims upon the place of honor in the party hierarchy, including Mrs. Benson, the amiable veteran whom she defeated by 150 votes.

Thus there was an uncomfortable element of racism in reverse, which nettled some of the party men and women more than they dared to let on. The issue was brought out boldly by a Negro backer of Mrs. Benson, Waldon Stewart, a Milwaukee politician and former member of the state legislature. It is as contemptible, he said, to vote for somebody for race reasons as to vote in opposition for such reasons.

All of this is not to suggest that Mrs. Phillips is not qualified. She is able, intelligent, discerning. The office, moreover, is largely symbolic in its importance. It signifies that women are the equal to their menfolk in political affairs, and that's about all.

THE REASON

Yet those were not the reasons for Mrs. Phillips' dramatic triumph.

Her backers, or many of them, were thinking in terms of national publicity for their feat — which they got in abundance — in terms of heckling the Dixiecrats on the national committee, in defying Gov. Faubus and the Ku Klux Klan in the south, as some of them put in their pre-convention publicity.

They were not thinking about the mechanics of party organization as much as about the ideological blueprint for a reorganized Democratic party.

There are some of the older hands in the party who are also worried, it ought to be noted, that they were forgetting about North Over-shoe, Wis.

The business of a political party is to gain and hold power. There is no real assurance that this enormously interesting event, whatever its other values, is connected with that fundamental objective.

Science Can be Frightening

From the St. Petersburg, Fla., Independent.

We who have tried at times to get away from the radio are up against the last blow. Now they have a radio in pill form that they make you swallow. As it takes the alimentary course commonly dictated by Nature it messages back your inmost secrets — or at least the lowdown on muscular pressures in the gastrointestinal tract.

Did we say "the last blow?" Perhaps it isn't. Next, perhaps, will come a TV pill. Swallow this and you can sit back and enjoy an action drama of your duodenal ulcer giving you fits.

Science certainly gets more wonderful, and frightening, every day.

Post-Crescent Rise Exceeds U. S. Average

Circulation Gains
At 14.1 Per Cent,
Survey Indicates

Special to Post-Crescent
New York—The rate of circulation gains registered for the Post-Crescent exceeds the national rate of climb, according to a survey made by Ayer's Directory of Newspapers and Periodicals.

The report shows Post-Crescent circulation at 31,118 in 1953 and 35,581 in 1957, an increase of 14.1 per cent. The general increase of daily newspapers throughout the United States was 5.8 per cent while the east north central states rise was 6.2 per cent.

The survey shows for the nation at large a new high in newspaper circulation. Daily papers averaged 37,000,000 paid copies per issue and weeklies, 22,000,000 copies. The combined circulation, 79,000,000 places newspapers in a stronger position as an advertising medium than they have ever occupied, the survey goes on.

The gains were made despite the fact that most newspapers were forced by rising costs of production and materials to increase prices.

Child Sets Fire to Wastebasket; Minor Damage Reported

A small child set fire to a wastebasket at the C. J. West home, 214 S. Rankin street, about 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Firemen said another child had put out the blaze when they arrived.

The basket set fire to drapes and a window frame was scorched. Fire Chief Paul Neumann said fire damage was minor, but there was smoke throughout the house.

Firemen were called to the Francis Ascher home, 1002 S. Walden avenue, about 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, after water leaked in an oil burning furnace onto the fire pot and the floor.

Teamsters Seek to Organize Workers At Warehouse

National Labor Relations board hearings were scheduled to resume at city hall this afternoon on an Appleton Teamsters' local petition seeking permission to organize five employees of the Robert A. Johnston company branch warehouse in Appleton.

The company, with headquarters in Milwaukee, manufactures biscuits, crackers and cookies.

Teamsters want to organize two truck drivers, a truck driver-warehouseman, a clerk-cookie packer and the branch manager.

The company contends the clerk-cookie packer and manager should not be included in the union. It claims the manager, James Mulholland, should be classified as a supervisor, not eligible for union membership.

Teamster Business Agent Robert Schlieve said Mulholland works in the branch warehouse and does not exercise managerial authority—making him eligible for union membership. He said the clerk-cookie packer is eligible because she shares common bargaining interests with other employees.

Mulholland was scheduled to appear as a witness this afternoon.

Three Priests To be Invested As Monsignors

Bishop Bona Will Officiate at Rites In Appleton Sunday

Three Appleton priests will be invested as monsignors during three ceremonies Sunday. The Most Rev. Stanislaus V. Bona, bishop of the Catholic diocese of Green Bay, will officiate at each service.

Ceremonies for the Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. A. Hauch are scheduled for 7:30 Sunday evening in the St. Therese rectory. Because the priest is in ill health, the service will be private.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Theodore Kersten, chaplain at St. Elizabeth hospital, will be invested at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the hospital chapel. Hospital sisters will serve refreshments after benediction to priests attending the ceremony.

A 4 o'clock ceremony has been planned for the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Emil Schmit, pastor of Sacred Heart church, at the church. A dinner will be served afterward in the parish hall for visiting clergy and relatives. The parish has scheduled a reception and program at 8 o'clock Monday evening in the school gymnasium.

Park Board Asks River Dredging Bids on July 15

Bids for dredging Lutz park lagoon will be opened at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, July 15, by the park board.

J. O. Johnson was awarded a contract for the work May 21, but it was never signed. Park Board Sec. Arthur Jones explained that Johnson would use a boom and bucket from the shore. Another dredging firm had since expressed interest.

C. R. Meyer and Son, Oshkosh, holder of a water commission contract for laying a feeder main across and under the Fox river, would do the work for about $1,500 and use a real dredge, Jones said.

City Atty. Don L. Jury ruled that the board would have to take bids rather than accept the informal quotation of C. R. Meyer. Johnson's award also had been on the basis of an informal quotation.

Alton Court Decision Put Off by Board

The board of public works apparently has agreed to postpone any decision on whether S. Alton court should be permitted to intersect the E. College avenue approach to the proposed College-to - Candee high level bridge.

Should S. Alton ultimately be excluded, one board member said, the change could be made during construction. Specifications set by the state highway commission will permit that, he said.

Recommendations to exclude the court came after property owners asked for and obtained exclusion of N. Catherine street and N. Green Bay road from the approach at about the same point.

Subsequently, seven owners of property on S. Alton protested excluding S. Alton from the approach. One of them, J. R. Whitman, 114 S. Alton, explained his reasons before the board.

Liability Insurance
James Holdercroft, of the state commission, has told the board some of the appraisals of property needed for the bridge are complete.

The board will resume conferences with Walter Kupfer, insurance agent, on July 1 over what to include in specifications.

tions for general liability insurance for the city.

Bids were received from Wallace and Tiernan, Inc., Belleville, N. J., and Fischer and Parker, Hatboro, Pa., for a new chlorinator at the sewage treatment plant. Director of Public Works Edwin J. Duszynski will study them and report back July 1.

Bids also were received for a police car and a 9,000-pound gross vehicle weight truck and chassis. The car bids went to Chief of Police Walter J. Hendricks for tabulating and return to the public safety committee. The truck bids went to Duszynski for a return to the street and sanitation committee.

Free Stay at Exclusive Inn For Hagertys

Jacksonville, Fla. — James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, and his wife were given a 5-day stay at the swank Ponte Vedra inn last year.

The inn, on the Atlantic ocean some 20 miles from here, picked up the check for $260.97 because they were special guests, officials said, adding that Hagerty took two golf lessons but paid for those. The Tampa Tribune had reported Sunday, July 20, instead of this Sunday as was incorrectly stated in Monday's paper.

Appleton Post-Crescent 7
Friday, June 20, 1958

from Jan. 27 through Feb. 1. J. P. LeMaster, president of Ponte Vedra Corp., told the newspaper, "When he got here, Hagerty insisted on paying his bill. We wouldn't let him do it."

Mayhugh Courson, assistant manager of the club, said honored guests don't receive bills. Paid for Lessons
In Washington, Hagerty said: "The account is correct as reported, except for one thing. I did pay for my golf lessons. I personally paid the club pro. I did insist, as the account says, on paying my entire bill, but the club would not let me do so."

"Under the circumstances, there was nothing wrong in this. I don't see how anyone could make anything of my being a guest of the club at their insistence."

LeMaster said there was no thought of gaining a favor by paying Hagerty's bill.

"I thought we were very fortunate in having him here," LeMaster said. He explained that the publicity gained by the press secretary's visit more than offset expenses borne by the club.

GET ACQUAINTED WITH CHEESE

Cheese experts say that more than 400 varieties of cheese are now made in the United States. There are cheeses to suit every whim of the palate, cheeses to please any nationality group, and cheeses for every conceivable cookery use.

Cheddar, generally known as American, is the most popular cheese in the United States. It is named after the village of Cheddar in England and has been made in the United States for hundreds of years. Cheddar cheese ranges in color from nearly white to yellow-orange and in flavor from mild to very sharp, depending on the aging. It may be served with crackers, in sandwiches, with fruit or pie, in dips or in any number of cheese dishes.

Swiss, the cheese with the mild, nutlike flavor and lacy appearance, is America's second most popular cheese. It is served in snacks and sandwiches and with cold meat platters. For best taste results, it should be cut in very thin slices.

Cream cheese, made from a mixture of milk and cream, is mild and delicately flavored, smooth and creamy. Serve it as a filling for fruit and nut breads, or whip with a bit of cream or milk to make a topping for fruit salads, pumpkin and apple pies, or gingerbread and fruit cobbles.

Blue cheese, richly flavored and creamy white with blue veins, has a pleasantly sharp taste. It blends well in salads and salad dressings and can be used either as an appetizer or dessert.

Gouda and Edam cheeses, akin except for size, can be recognized by their spherical shape and bright red jackets. They are named for the Dutch towns where they originated. Their mild flavor makes them an excellent complement to salads or desserts.

Provolone cheese, which originated in southern Italy, has a distinctive smoky taste. Easily recognized because it comes in bologna shaped loaves wrapped with small ropes, it is served with beverages or with fruit and crackers for snacks or desserts.

Parmesan, another cheese having its origin in Italy, is used chiefly to bring out the flavor of cooked dishes.

Camembert, an epicure's delight, is often found in foil wrapped triangles of individual serving size. It has a thin whitish crust and soft, creamy yellow interior and tastes best when allowed to stand at room temperature until the interior is almost fluid. It is served as dessert, or after dessert, with crackers or spread on thin apple slices.

Brick cheese, pressed in a large rectangular shape, is creamy white in color and has a flavor ranging from mild to pronounced. It is an excellent sandwich cheese and an ideal partner on the cold meat platter.

Steinle Says
Ike Should Fire Adams

Senate Candidate
Speaks at Manitowoc
Republican Meeting

By The Associated Press
Republican U. S. senate hopeful Roland J. Steinle, said Thursday night that President Eisenhower should ask the resignation of Sherman Adams.

"If Sherman Adams has committed even the most innocent indiscretion, he should be asked to resign," Steinle told a GOP meeting in Manitowoc.

"Although Adams' conduct was not intentionally dishonest, his effectiveness as a public official has been greatly impaired. Republicans have never countenanced impropriety in government, and I don't think we should make any exceptions."

Under Investigation
Gifts to Adams by a wealthy Boston manufacturer have come under investigation by a house committee looking into possible pressure on government regulatory agencies.

Philo Nash of Wisconsin Rapids and Carl Thomson of Stoughton, both former chairmen of the Wisconsin Democratic party, discussed the controversy that erupted in the party following the election of Mrs. Vel Phillips of Milwaukee as Democratic national committeewoman.

They agreed the bitterness will be forgotten and that Democrats will remember that victory in the fall elections is the most important goal.

Thomson said Democrats "realize that the personality of party officials is secondary to the need for uniting behind our candidates."

Nash, who seeks the party's nomination for lieutenant governor, said the discord "presents the greatest challenge to party leadership since 1948."

Nash succeeded as party chairman by Patrick Lucey of Madison, target of much of the criticism that followed the election at the party's state convention last weekend.

Russians Hold Demonstration
In Moscow

London—A crowd of Russians demonstrated in front of the Danish embassy in Moscow today in protest against anti-Soviet outbreaks in Copenhagen over the execution of Imre Nagy and his Hungarian associates. The demonstration, a rarity in disciplined Moscow, was reported by Moscow radio.

Danish crowds, angered at the news of the death of Nagy, stoned the Russian embassy in Copenhagen Tuesday night and smashed some windows.

Today's Moscow broadcast said: "Workers and employees from various Moscow enterprises and establishments assembled at the building and cried out with demands that the Danish government should curb the hostile sallies of Danish reactionary elements against the Soviet Union."

Carried Placards
"The demonstrators carried placards with inscriptions expressing their demands upon the Danish government to secure normal conditions for the activity of official Soviet representatives."

The demonstration followed a formal protest to the Danish government by Moscow yesterday. The Soviet note said Danish authorities "could not have been unaware of the provocation that was being prepared against the Soviet embassy" and did not try to curb the crowd that threw stones.

The Moscow broadcast described the stoning in Copenhagen as a "gangsterish attack."

Anchorage Paper Says
Radar Station Being Built on Shemya Island

Anchorage, Alaska — A super-powerful radar station capable of detecting ballistic missiles many hundreds of miles away is being built on Shemya island about 300 miles from Soviet soil, says the Anchorage Times.

Shemya is about 1,500 miles west of here in the Aleutian chain and some 300 miles from Russia's Kamchatka peninsula. The Times reported 100 men have been flown to Shemya and 100 more will be airlifted there shortly for preliminary construction work and advance planning.

A missile detector station at Shemya would be the second on the nation's northern defense rim. The first is under construction 50 miles southwest of Fairbanks at an estimated cost of $11,000,000.

The air force and defense department have declined to comment on the missile-spotting stations.

Mrs. Myrna Cramer, 22, whose dock worker husband Carl, 25, drowned Monday while rescuing Mrs. Jean Salewski and her 3-year-old daughter from the Menomonee river in Milwaukee, reads a citation for his "great act of heroism." Cramer's funeral was Thursday. The posthumous citation was presented by members of the Milwaukee police force, from left to right, Det. Inspector Rudolph Glaser and Police Chief Howard Johnson. London Paper Offers Prize
Of Vicuna Coat in Contest

London—The Daily Mail today offered a $700 made-to-measure vicuna overcoat as a contest prize.

The Mail's columnist Paul Tanfield invited his readers to submit, by June 24, "an imaginary 50-word classified ad for an imaginary official wanting to get rid of an imaginary vicuna overcoat in a hurry."

"The funniest 50 words will get my prize," Tanfield wrote. London columnists and cartoonists continued their barbed running comment on President Eisenhower and his chief assistant, Sherman Adams.

The front page of the Daily Express cartooned a girl explaining a sparkling bracelet to her suspicious mother thus:

"Honestly, mommy darling, I promise you it was nothing more than what President Eisenhower calls a tangible expression of friendship."

Columnist Comments
Commenting in the Daily Mirror, columnist William N. Connor, who goes under the pen name Cassandra, wrote:

"I like him. I admire him. I respect him. I need him."

"Thus President Eisenhower, speaking as Mr. Sherman Adams, his chief assistant, who has been covertly accepting presents from a millionaire friend."

"Of these four warm expressions of good will, perhaps the last is the most revealing—I need him."

"I can hardly imagine Sir Winston Churchill or, for that matter Lord (Clement) Attlee, ever getting bogged down into such a position of gushing dependence."

A cartoon in the Tabloid, which describes itself as left-of-center politically, depicted Eisenhower wearing an "I like Adams" button and carrying a paintbrush, standing on the White House lawn next to a pile of hotel bills and Oriental rugs. The caption says: "My house is whiter than . . ."

Difficulties Stop Launching of Vanguard Rocket

Cape Canaveral, Fla. — An attempt to launch a Vanguard satellite rocket was "scrubbed" at 4:30 a.m. (EST) because of technical difficulties.

A firing of a basketball-sized satellite originally was set for 9:30 p.m. (EST) Thursday. For several hours, the slender rocket sat outside its service tower, bathed in lights.

Several holds were called, ranging from a few minutes to three hours.

There was no announcement when the next effort would be made to shoot the rocket.

Busy Doctors Interrupted Hectic professional schedules Thursday evening and took off an evening to socialize with their fellow members of the Outagamie Medical society at the organization's annual dinner at Riverview Country club. Their wives, members of the society's auxiliary, joined the men for the evening festivities. At left, the Drs. Robert De Cock, second from right, and James Gmeiner, right, chat companionably with their wives, Mrs. De Cock, left, and Mrs. Gmeiner in the club lounge. Mrs. De Cock served as chairman of the dinner which was preceded by a cock-

Man With Foot on Banana Peel Shaky Matrimonial Prospect

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN: I'm no teenager, in fact I'm crowding 40. I've been married and divorced. Facing the future alone frightens me. Please help me make the biggest decision of my life.

Recently I met a widower who is twice my age. He's active, and alert and operates his own business every day. He was married to the same woman for 50 years. She passed away five years ago and he's very lonely. They never had any children and he has no family left.

This man wants to marry me. Shall I give him the companionship he desires in the remaining years of his life? He says this would be a good arrangement for us both as I would inherit enough to keep me more than comfortable for the rest of my life.

Could a match like this bring happiness? I've never been more undecided in my life.—Greatly Disturbed.

If you marry this man, the word "arrangement" sums it up neatly. This transaction should be reported not in the society section of the newspapers but on the financial page.

One needn't be an Einstein to figure out that this man is nearly 80 years of age. According to recent insurance statistics your friend is almost 14 years "overdue." If you want to marry a man who may very well have one foot in the grave and the other on a banana peel, go ahead. But bear in mind that this may be the hardest money you ever earned.

DEAR ANN: This is strange for me—asking for advice. At the office I'm the one who

Life in Iran, U.S. Compared by Former New London Resident

Life in Iran is comparable with life in the United States with several exceptions, according to Mrs. Reza Mehran, Tehran, Iran, who left Tuesday with her daughter, Shereen, after spending about 15 months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray V. Pahl, E. Cook street, New London.

Mrs. Mehran, who spent three years in Tehran prior to returning to New London, is the wife of an Iranian oral surgeon. The former Jean Pahl met the dentist at the University of Chicago Billing's hospital dental clinic where she was employed as a staff nurse.

The Mehrans were wed in January, 1952, and Dr. Mehran returned to his native country a year later to establish practice. His wife joined him soon after, residing there until her return to the United States.

Few Control Wealth

"The biggest difference between the United States and the country in which history had its beginning probably is in society," Mrs. Mehran said. "Wealth in Iran centers in the hands of a few very rich people."

Husband Practices Dentistry

Her husband, Dr. Reza Mehran, belongs in the upper class and is a professor of oral surgery in the dental clinic at the University of Tehran. Dr. Mehran currently is building a new office and home in the better section of Tehran where he practices.

Mrs. Mehran pointed out Iran recently underwent a financial crisis when the government nationalized oil. Prior to nationalization, the government obtained a large revenue from the oil and when it was run by the government, there was no market for the oil. Recently, however, Iran has expanded oil sale and economy is on the upturn.

Fresh Fruit Abundant

The homemaker disclosed that cooking abroad is more difficult than in the United States because quantity and types of foods are limited. "Frozen foods, however," she stated, "are available and Iran has an abundant supply of wonderful fruits."

"Potatoes are one of the country's main vegetables, while rice is the main dish in Iran," added Mrs. Mehran. "Residents also eat a lot of lamb."

"Iran, like many of its neighboring countries," explained Mrs. Mehran, "suffers from lack of industrialization. While the government is attempting to raise standards, its methods are far behind the United States."

Bi-Lingual Education

Because of the international situation, children in Iran start taking a foreign language in the early grades in elementary schools. Many have studied English and speak it fluently. The native language is Persian.

Religious belief is no obstacle for Mrs. Mehran, who disclosed that about 90 per cent of the people are Moslems. Tehran has a large American Presbyterian church which she attends.

One of the biggest differences, comments Mrs. Mehran, between Iran and this country is the scarcity of electricity. In Tehran electricity is expensive and it is shut off several nights a week.

Misses American Clothes

To compensate, Iran has an abundance of highly skilled workers, who work for low wages performing many jobs which are done by electricity in America.

Our Children Collections are Sacred To Young; Don't Disturb

BY ANGELO PATRI

Most small boys and girls collect things. Just things. They fill their pockets with odds and ends for which there seems to be no use.

The children find the world so full of things new to them, that they want to gather it all to themselves and keep it forever. They will have strings, a couple of nails, a bit of gum, a marble, a bit of metal without form or use. Yet they are all precious to the collector and his cry of distress at any attempt to part from them is one of real pain. They are part of him for the time being.

Bear with this for the time. Give the collector a box or a drawer, someplace sacred to his collection and let it stand. The little dust it gathers is not as important as is the ownership of these mementoes to him. As time goes on he will either stop collecting or become more discriminating in his choice of subjects.

He may toss out the junky heap and start collecting one class of objects: postcards of foreign cities, stamps, minerals, dolls, carved animals. This gathering of things is a road to useful and pleasant knowledge and associations. A boy or girl interested in making such a collection has a worthwhile occupation and interest that will enrich his mind and add color and attractiveness to his personality. Collectors of this sort are more likely to be on the Dean's List than on some others less distinguished.

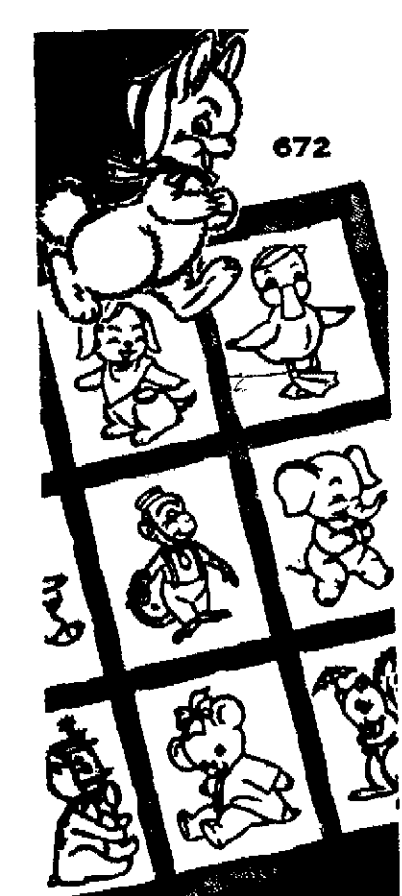

Needs Guidance

The collector does need the help and wise supervision of the adult who knows more about the items he is collecting than he does. A little guidance and encouragement can enlighten and inspire the collector so that he gets the better values from his investigations.

Mothers need to keep a watchful eye on the first steps the collector takes lest he make unfortunate mistakes such as helping himself to what some other collector is hoarding. His pockets must be checked, lest he carry something that has no place there. Children love to show what they own and as they know little about the difference of their owning something and that of their parents' ownership, they may make mistakes. Take a look at what they are carrying before they start out in the morning.

The drive to collect things often lasts for a lifetime so we try to direct it in healthy fashion. The good collection of whatever kind can be a great source of pleasure, friendships and culture even down to old age. Encourage it for its values to its owner.

Tell Winners In Golf at North Shore

Members and their guests gathered at North Shore Golf club Wednesday for women's golf play.

Mrs. Fred Rasmussen, Neenah, posted the lowest net score for the first nine holes among the guests. Mrs. David Ryan, Neenah, was low among the members. Lowest net totals for the second nine holes were listed among guests by Mrs. Carl Forsgren, Menasha, and among members by Mrs. Morris Warzink, Neenah.

The guest closest to the pin on the fourth hole was Mrs. David Jones, and the member closest on the seventh hole was Mrs. Clarence Kramlich, Appleton. On the fourteenth hole, Mrs. William Gilbert, Neenah, was closest to the pin among the members. Mrs. Helen August, a guest, was closest on the sixteenth hole.

Women's golf play next Wednesday will feature a mixer for old and new members. Coffee will be served from 9 o'clock until 9:30, and members will draw names from a hat to determine partners.

DEAR ANN: This is no problem. It's a situation which my husband and I must deal with, and we hope you'll print this letter to help others who may face the same problem.

We own property. A family who rents from us got behind in the rent and moved out in the middle of the night.

How sad that people don't realize they harm themselves, not the landlord when they behave this way. They double their feeling of failure and add to it a sense of guilt. They make a lasting impression on their children (who must surely realize what's going on) and they ruin their credit and blacken their name.

Falling behind in the rent is not a crime. If these people would talk to the agent or the landlord and work out a plan to take care of the back rent at a later date how much better off they'd be. Sneaking off in the night never solved anything.—Sally

'To Thine Ownself be True' Beauty Formula of Loretta Young

BY LORETTA YOUNG

New York.—To thine own self be true.

That's the best beauty formula I know. Don't smother your own personality. Think of it as an asset worth cultivating, make its development part of the joy of living. Don't try to be a second-rate Audrey Hepburn or a poor imitation of Polly Bergen. Be an original. Find, study and be yourself.

There's excitement in discovering your own individuality and developing it. Every woman is instinctively the best judge of her own possibilities. But instinct needs instruction, and every woman can learn to interpret what she sees in the mirror and to make the most of it.

Look Your Best

I always have a full-length, three-way mirror on the set when I am working before the camera. I consult it frequently, especially the side and back views. The casual studio visitor might interpret these consultations as evidence of personal vanity, but a very false interpretation it would be. The mirror is there solely as a matter of business. Looking my best is essential to my job. And I have found—as you, too, can find—that the mirror and I are my severest and best critics.

Lipstick carelessly applied, a strand of hair out of place, a hat that is even a fraction of an inch awry—these are little details that might escape the eye of the makeup man, the director—even the cameraman. But any one of them can be destructive to the mood of the scene.

Take Stock

Recognize and value the good features—not just suffer over faults you see in your face and figure. Really look at yourself in the mirror. Then put on your best dress. Now, ask yourself if that dress is friend or foe. Does it do anything for you? Does it slim your hips? Does it add height, if your figure's stocky? Does its color complement your skin tone, your hair, your eyes? Yes? Good. Then it is your best friend. When you wear that best

Many a lovely teen asks: "What can I do about perspiring hands? When I dance with my dreamboat, the situation gets positively sticky."

My answer is: Baby, it's warm outside and warmer on the dance floor. It is just natural for hands to react to the atmospheric condition. But you are right in not wanting to accept the inevitable and you do not have to.

Before you go dancing, apply a little antiperspirant to the palms of your hands. Just a little, mind you, for you may develop a kind of prickly heat in your palms on the morrow, if you overdo.

Wishing for "drieth" at other times, massage your palms with talc or cologne. Either way, excessive damp is discouraged.

Above all, do not fluster when your hands grow moist. Nerves, fuss and embarrassment cause the condition for more often than the weather's thermometer. Keep calm and do the sophisticated thing—unfold and fluff out a pretty handkerchief, and press it lightly between your palms.

If you don't make a show out of it, the onlooker will think your move a feminine whim wherein there is no practical guide.

Mr. and Mrs. August Schmidt (Trapp Photo)

Couple Celebrates 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. August Schmidt, Embarrass, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday with a reception and evening entertainment at the Veterans Memorial building, Clintonville.

Mr. Schmidt was born in Shawano county May 15, 1884. The couple resided on a farm near Embarrass until 1940, at which time they moved into the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt were married June 3, 1908, at St. John's Lutheran church at Poy-dar. Among those present Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Willie Brandt, Appleton, who were the wedding attendants of Mr. Schmidt, born in Lac Cour, Minn., March 20, 1890, and Mrs. Schmidt.

ering your own individuality and developing it. Every woman is instinctively the best judge of her own possibilities. But instinct needs instruction, and every woman can learn to interpret what she sees in the mirror and to make the most of it.

Look Your Best

I always have a full-length, three-way mirror on the set when I am working before the camera. I consult it frequently, especially the side and back views. The casual studio visitor might interpret these consultations as evidence of personal vanity, but a very false interpretation it would be. The mirror is there solely as a matter of business. Looking my best is essential to my job. And I have found—as you, too, can find—that the mirror and I are my severest and best critics.

Lipstick carelessly applied, a strand of hair out of place, a hat that is even a fraction of an inch awry—these are little details that might escape the eye of the makeup man, the director—even the cameraman. But any one of them can be destructive to the mood of the scene.

Take Stock

Recognize and value the good features—not just suffer over faults you see in your face and figure. Really look at yourself in the mirror. Then put on your best dress. Now, ask yourself if that dress is friend or foe. Does it do anything for you? Does it slim your hips? Does it add height, if your figure's stocky? Does its color complement your skin tone, your hair, your eyes? Yes? Good. Then it is your best friend. When you wear that best dress to a party, you'll feel happy, confident and satisfied with your appearance in it.

Remember first things first: the woman before the dress, vitality before beauty. Remember that without vitality, your hair will lack luster, your skin won't glow—your eyes can't sparkle. Your face isn't just an exposure of skin and topographical feature, to be powdered, eye-shadowed and lipstickked.

Be Yourself

Like every other teen-ager, when I was in my early teens I lived with the compulsion to look older, more sophisticated. I had to conquer this compulsion before I could achieve the first ingredient of success—individuality. The best advice I received from Colleen Moore was my turning point. I showed up at the studio one morning, my face practically weighed down with heavy makeup. Colleen looked at me and said crisply: "Go home and wash your face." Six words—a lesson I've never forgotten.

Hardcore and makeup can be dramatic accomplices to your self-interpretation. Find your own special quality. Let your mirror "talk" truthfully to you. stay with the children and let them walk or run a bit, to get like, just to gaze upon your unbound. This "car recess" image in the mirror—either with satisfaction or self-pitying resignation without accepting the challenge—shame on you.

GOING on a long trip? When you stop to eat, you go in and order for the family. Follow Safety Rules In Operating Mower

Power Units Not Dangerous When These Simple Laws are Observed

The power lawn mower hadn't actually come into vogue in 1944, so an accident involving one was unusual enough to make news.

One of the first power mower accidents of record involved an Army private who came home late in World War II to recuperate from wounds received in three invasions and was wounded by a spoon.

The spoon buried by a power lawn mower in the front lawn, penetrated the soldier's leg and had to be removed by an operation.

Since then power lawn mowers have increased in popularity. The number of mower mishaps has increased in direct proportion.

While no national figures are available on the power mower accident problem, the National Safety Council said a study showed that:

1. One injury in seven results in some permanent disability.
2. Toes and feet are most often injured.
3. Seven out of 10 persons injured in mower mishaps come in direct contact with the mower.

The other three are hurt by objects thrown by the mower. While the first power mower mishap may have been unusual enough to be news, such accidents today are anything but out-of-the-ordinary.

In fact, almost every day newspapers carry accounts of mower accidents, among them such serious ones as these:

A Florida woman was killed by a blade that sailed 50 feet from a power mower and through a window pane before striking her.

A little girl was killed when her jugular vein was severed by a piece of metal hurled by a power mower.

No More Dangerous But, according to the National Safety Council, power lawn mowers are no more dangerous than any other gadget used around the yard—if a few basic rules are observed. For example:

1. Unless you have good artificial light, mow only during daylight.
2. Don't use an electric mower when the grass is wet and slippery.
3. Never allow youngsters or pets near a power mower. Nor should youngsters be allowed to operate one.

4. When starting the engine, stand with your feet planted in a safe spot. Always be sure of your footing and balance—especially when mowing on an incline. On hills and banks, cut sideways, not up and down.

Refuel Outdoors 5. Don't refuel the mower while it's running or still hot from use. Always refuel out of doors. Don't forget, either, to store the gasoline in an approved container.

6. Shut off the mower before moving it from one level to another, or when you want to work on its underside. Never leave the mower unattended while it's running.

7. Make sure the area to be mowed is free of sticks, stones, wire or other obstacles.

8. Know how to disengage the clutch and stop the engine quickly.

"Power lawn mowers are a great time-saver—as any man of the house will tell you," the Council says. "But they brought with them new hazards users aren't fully equipped to guard against."

"Only if manufacturers and users cooperate can power lawn mower accidents be prevented."

Turnaround Can Be Constructed On Your Land

Driving Forward Easier, Safer Than Moving Backward

BY GEORGE E. CREED

While it is true that millions of Americans back their cars from their garages to the street, this practice can be inconvenient and dangerous, too. On the other hand, driving forward is easier than driving backward.

If your garage is attached and your house is set back from the street only a short distance, a turnaround is not feasible. But if your garage is separate and you have adequate space for the building a turnaround you will find it advantageous to do so.

In the turnaround here illustrated, curves have been calculated to accommodate an average-sized modern automobile. For larger cars these curves, naturally, would have to be of greater radius. Remember that the few dollars and time you save by skimping will be insignificant in comparison to the convenience of an ample turnaround.

Tape Measure Laying out a turnaround is easy. It can be done with a tape measure and a few stakes. The layout will be easy to check, too. Simply try turning your car around within the area bounded by the stakes you have set. You should make this check before you start excavating for the placement of the concrete or other material you will need.

The easiest way to form such curves as those shown here is by using one-fourth inch plywood strips with a depth equal to that of the paving you intend placing. Use stakes on both sides of the plywood form strips so as to hold the strips in place while laying your surfacing material. Remove those stakes on the paving side of the strips before your paving material gets too hard.

One objection to turnarounds is that they often take up space that would ordinarily be used for lawn or planting beds. This objection can be offset to a large degree by establishing a planting along the lines suggested in the sketch.

The Church Wing for St. Pius X parish, now under construction on the north side, is expected to be completed in November and the entire building, including classrooms for 600 youngsters, is expected to be finished a year from this month. The building, still in its early construction stages, will cost about $550,000. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Little Expense

Handy Male Can Make Attractive Planter for Home's Terrace, Patio

AP Newfeatures Writer

TERRACES and patios need planters to add that touch of green. The handy husband can make them in a few hours at little expense.

Here's one, designed for construction in the home workshop, composed of three tapered boxes, each nesting inside the other.

And if you want to make life easier for the little woman, affix the planter to rubber-wheeled casters to make it mobile; no more tugging and shoving.

then, to move a flower box, 3-16 inches in from one end and heavy with earth, from one to another point 15-16 of an inch in from the other end.

Cutting at an angle across these points from the top end edges will give you the eight- and 5-degree cuts.

As you assemble the four sections of each of the three boxes, lap the eight-degree end over the five-degree end in a "continuous lap" method. The result will be a uniform taper.

Put the sections together first with a single nail at each corner. Then join them permanently with two-inch No. 7 brass or steel flathead or oval head screws one piece of exterior grade fir plywood about 24 by 24 inches.

Cedar is strong wood but tends to split, so take pains to drill through the overlapping ends with a bit only slightly smaller than the shank of the screw. Use two screws for each bottom corner of each box; one be cut with a slight miter at each end for a taper so the boxes will nest.

There are two ways to do it: (1) If you have a miter jig, cut one end at an angle of eight degrees, the other end at an angle of five degrees. Or (2) 1

Be careful, too, in driving the lower screws because the siding is thinner on the bottom edge.

Now cut the plywood in a square piece so it will extend out about a quarter inch on all sides of the bottom of the lower box.

Rip a 2-inch strip off the thick edge of the remaining length of siding and use this to form facing for the edge of the platform. Place this facing also in the "continuous lap" method, using either nails or screws, and let it rise about half an inch above the platform.

The lower part of the facing will hang below the platform, producing a skirt to conceal the casters. The casters must be of the plate variety, which mount with screws.

The wheels, not smaller than 1 1/2 inches, should be rubber. Composition or cast iron wheels will not roll smoothly over terraces, patios, driveways or walks as the planter is moved around.

Nest the three boxes inside each other—and joyfully call the little woman to come and inspect your masterpiece.

Chemist Sees Danger In Fallout in Utah

Logan, Utah — (AP) — A Utah chemist says some 10,000 persons living in southern Utah not far from the Nevada atomic bomb test site may have absorbed about 30 times as much Gamma ray irradiation as other persons in the United States.

Dr. Norma Bauer, Utah State university professor, told the Pacific division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science meeting here Wednesday that, depending on dietary habits of the residents, "this amount of local fallout would result in a more or less serious accumulation of Strontium 90 in the bones within a decade or two."

He said federal agencies have not furnished enough information on fallout to establish if there is a danger and that there is an urgent need for this data.

Happier, Homier

Outdoor Living Can Be Fun for Family

The family with outdoor living facilities usually is healthier, happier and homier.

Be-sides, when the family spends more time outdoors, there's less work for mother in the way of formal cooking and housekeeping. The whole family enjoys this frontier-like life in the back yard, and members pitch in with zest when it comes to cooking over an open grill.

More relaxation is another advantage to backyard living, too. There can be a picnic table, fireplace or grill, lounging chairs and hammocks, facilities for shuffleboard, croquet, horseshoe or similar games. When not away on vacation, the family with outdoor living facilities can have vacation time right at home during the favorable weather months.

The back yard becomes a haven for adolescents, also, and it's good for the family's esprit de corps to have a common meeting place in an enjoyable atmosphere. There's much to be said for an organized effort toward more fresh air and sunshine, right in your own back yard.

Here's a plan designed for anyone's back yard: Storage Unit

There's a handsome storage unit, permanently attached to the house, garage or carport. The structure has two doors leading to garden storage areas on walls lined with pegboard panels.

One of the two storage cupboards accessible from the outside contains cooking utensils and room for a fold-up table which drops down to become an efficient work surface. On the inside of the storage unit is a work table for the gardener.

Privacy for the outdoor living center is afforded by a modern fence made of panels cut into rectangles.

Outdoor living this summer can be yours at small cost. Give your back yard a homier atmosphere and have a summer-long vacation right at home.

Easy Formula for Beating the Heat

Summer Can be More Pleasant if Cleaning Confined to Essentials

Here's a simple formula for staying cool this summer: Take it easy.

A trip to the mountains, seashore or lake is a pleasant respite, but it's still possible to beat the heat right at home.

First rule for keeping cool, says the Tile Council of America, is to avoid excessive physical activities during the hottest part of the day. If a siesta isn't possible, reserve for the mid-day those chores that require the least effort.

A summer can be more pleasant if house cleaning is confined to the essentials. That's one of the reasons the smart homeowner will insist on materials for floors and walls that require no special maintenance.

It is unnecessary, for example, to wax tile, since its tough surface needs no protective coating. Just warm water, any soapless detergent and a soft cloth will keep real ceramic tile sparkling clean.

Many experts also recommend a lighter diet during the summer months as a good way to stay comfortable. Concentrate on salads, cheeses, cold cuts, fresh vegetables and other items that require less time and effort in preparation—it's the cool way to eat during the hot months.

If you are particularly susceptible to the heat, it's a good idea to avoid the direct rays of the sun during the peak hours of the day whenever possible.

If you seek succor from the heat in a tub or shower, it's best if the water is tepid. Rapid and severe changes in body temperature should be avoided.

New Furniture Design Offers Buyer Choice

Produce Pieces To be Organized On Showroom Floor

BY VIVIAN BROWN

AP News Features Writer

These days you can put your own furniture together, just as you do lamps of other home accessories.

Two energetic young designers, Robert Fellner and Mark Furst, are among those applying their talents to producing pieces that may be organized by a customer right on the showroom floor. They say:

"We feel that a person shopping for furniture ought to be able to select pieces to make a unit to suit her own needs. One may need a special series of drawers for accessories in a commode, another may want a unit that permits room for TV, a radio or a bar as well. Another couple may want furniture units that may be added to from time to time."

Variety of Choices Their aim is to offer a customer a wide variety of choices in selecting a piece of furniture.

Fellner and Furst mass produce about 30 different cabinet sizes, ranging in size from three to eight feet long and divided into compartments of 24 or 36 inches wide. The buyer problem is seldom "oh, I like this, but it is just too small here, and too wide there."

Any unusual combination may be met, they say. Cabinet sizes come too, with an infinite variety of exterior and interior treatments, numerous finishes, leg and base arrangements and hardware.

"One thing we try to recognize is that few people have the same taste. They may like the identical cabinet except for legs or finish, so we try to solve the problem without having them resort to handmade pieces," the designers explain.

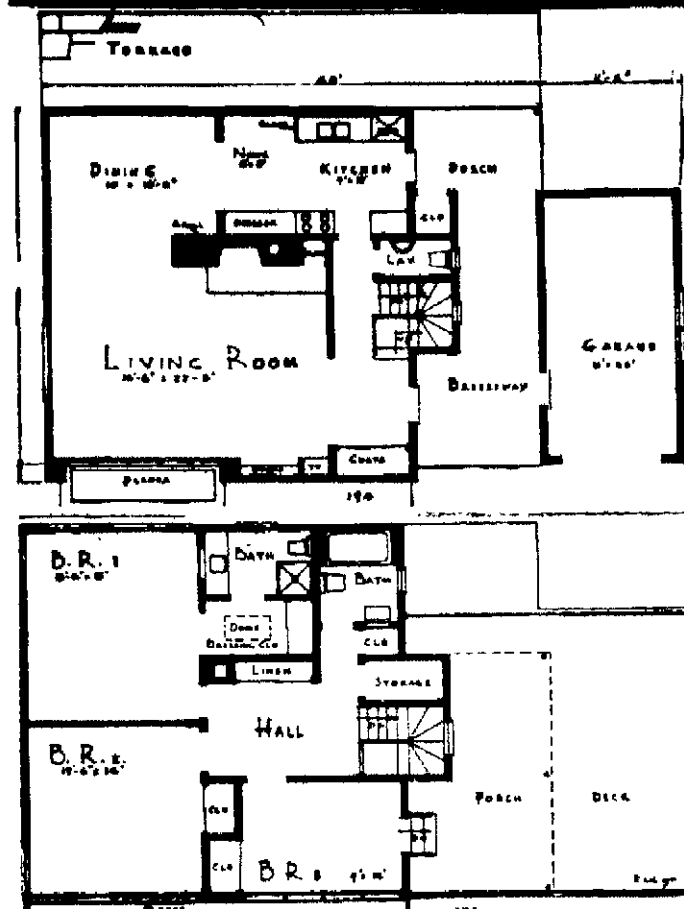

Range of Interiors The range of interiors for each compartment may run from a single fixed of adjustable shelf to expertly prepared housings for the most intricate choices include fittings for radio, phonograph, speaker, tape recorder, pull-out desk, trays and silverware storage.

"Furniture design has had a difficult time advancing from the test panel," Fellner says. "The reason is that too many people still think of furniture only in terms of design. We feel the engineering concept in furniture has been neglected too long, and that more furniture manufacturers must think in the same bold terms as automobile manufacturers."

The designers point out that in the automobile showroom, the buyer may make a choice of body type, number of doors, kind of engine, color combinations, different gear systems and numerous accessories, "yet a piece of furniture must last longer than the life of a car."

Vanishing Group

Pueblo, Colo. — When the Colorado Police Protective association held its annual convention this year, only two charter members were there to answer roll call. They were Robert H. Wraith, 70, retired Colorado Springs police captain, and J. Howard Carver, 64, Denver detective. The association was organized in 1924.

In This Era of the Ranch style home, there remain many persons who prefer the 2-story design. This home features an open plan with the living room opening onto a patio. There is a full basement and a lavatory or powder room on the first floor. For the name of the designer, call the Post-Crescent and ask for house plan 194.

Question: In reading directions about do-it-yourself projects, I often see the terms "carriage bolt" and "machine bolt." I thought they were the same. Is there a difference and what is it?

Answer: A carriage bolt has an oval head, with a square part of the shank to keep the bolt from turning while the nut is being screwed into place. A machine bolt has a square head and no square portion of the shank. While the nut is held with a wrench, the head is tightened with another wrench. The carriage bolt is usually used where it is desired to provide a little neater appearance than the machine bolt.

Question: I have heard conflicting opinions about whether chemical cleaners are satisfactory for sink drains. What is your opinion?

Answer: Some years ago many chemical cleaners were injurious to the plumbing system when used over a period of time. Today most of them are reasonably safe to use, but the instructions on the container must be followed carefully. Remember that, to be effective, a chemical cleaner must get into the pipe to dissolve grease and other accumulated matter. Therefore, where there is a 100 per cent stoppage — when no water at all will drain — the chemical cannot do its work until the drain is at least partially unclogged.

These Days

Criticism of Adams Not Concerned With Virtue, but the Man Himself

BY GEORGE SOKOLSKY

(Copyright, 1958)

New York — Everybody who writes news, writes about Sherman Adams. The facts in his case are not a b s olutely clear, except that Sherman Adams has a friend, Bernard Goldfine, who is a New England operator of industries and investments and that Adams accepted Goldfine's hospitality and exchanged gifts with him. The assumption is that Goldfine wanted and got favors from Adams but this has not been established.

Sokolsky

Were Sherman Adams not such a granite-like Yankee, he would ask that a congressional committee investigate everybody else as well as him and get a list of all hospitality accepted by government officials and other public persons, including members of the congressional committees.

For it is common practice among politicians and others to accept various kinds of hospitality, and as long as the government limits a per diem expense account to the ridiculous amount of 412 which is hardly enough to pay for a hotel room in a large city, much less for food, drink, entertainment and incidental expenses, some officials will have to accept hospitality if they are to get around.

Accept Hospitality

How about all the senators and members of the house of representatives who travel about the country making speeches at from $300 to $1,500 a piece and who accept excellent hospitality under the circumstances? How about those who travel on airplane junkies or go to the openings of new hotels in all parts of the world?

The real truth of the matter is, first, that this is a campaign year and if the Democrats can get anything on the Republicans, or vice versa, it will be done. Secondly, Sherman Adams is an extraordinarily unpopular man. So were John Adams and John Quincy Adams, his forebears. There must have been quite a bit of the gay spark in John Quincy Adams because when he was the American minister at St. Petersburg, he did quite well by the installment plan, really himself and his country. In fact, all the Adamses, from the beginning, have been notable, if not exciting men. In an earlier generation, Henry Adams and Brooks Adams were particularly startling for the unorthodoxy of their views.

Keeper of Gate

I have never met Sherman Adams because I do not choose to recognize the keeper of the gate at the White House. When the American people elect a president, he should serve and, not delegate his functions to another. Unquestionably Sherman Adams has exercised, by delegation, an authority for which there is no provision in the Constitution or in the American political system. The only man to try to make such a place for himself before Adams was Col. Edward House in the Woodrow Wilson administration. However, House never replaced Wilson in matters of judgment, serving principally as a leg-man and competing with more than able men, such as Herbert Hoover, Bernard Baruch, Robert H. Lansing, Newton Baker, etc. In the end, Wilson dropped House. The current attack on Sherman Adams has nothing to do with $2,000. After all, it is, for such men, a piddling amount. It has to do with Sherman Adams. Enough people dislike Adams to enjoy his discomfort. They dislike him because he makes his power felt; he is curt and sharp and at times offensive. Some regard him as sanctimonious. The acceptance of a vicuna coat, which is pretty poor goings in a nation where minks can be brought on

Hits Even, But Bees Top Fox Cities, 5-1

Moore Twirls 7-Hitter to Give Burlington 2-0 Lead in Series; Foxes' Home Stay Ends Tonight

BY MIKE DREW
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Again getting mileage out of their muscles, Burlington's Bees dispatched the Fox Cities Foxes, 5-1, at Goodland field Thursday night.

The Bees had collected seven runs on just seven hits in winning the series opener Tuesday. In taking a 2-0 lead in the 3-game set Thursday, Burlington made seven hits good for five runs.

And, once again, the Bees applied the old maxim that the shortest way around the bases is with a home run. They went ahead to stay on a 2-run shot in the fourth by Dennis Loudenback. And, Fred Caviness' solo blast in the sixth provided winner Bob Moore with his final 5-1 cushion.

Gains Revenge

In making his record 5-2, Moore gained revenge for a loss to the Foxes on May 24, by a similar 5-1 score, in the second game of a Fox Cities doubleheader sweep.

"The loser in the May 24 twin bill opener, Bees lefthander Ron Goerger, is slated to seek his fifth win in seven decisions tonight. His opponent in the 6:30 "Couples Night" tussle will be righthander Rene Nodarse (3-3). Nodarse will be seeking his third straight win in the finale of a week-long home stand.

The 6-2 Moore, Burlington's only righthanded starter, allowed the Foxes seven hits Thursday. Runners got as far as third only in the fifth (when one run scored), sixth and ninth. He stranded nine men, striking out five and walking three.

Loser Gary Mitchell, now 3-4, yielded four of the Bees' runs on five hits and five walks in 3 and 2-3 innings.

He was followed by Ernie Stinsa, who served up Caviness' home run ball, and Ted

Southern California '9' Wins NCAA Crown

Omaha —P— Southern California rules today as the champion of the college baseball world.

The Trojans grabbed the NCAA World Series title Thursday night by beating Missouri, 8-7, the second win in two nights over the Big Eight conference champions.

It took 12 innings for the Trojans to get the job done.

Mike Blewett finally broke up the game, driving a long hit to right field to score "Red" Johnston from third with two men out.

Spectacular Track Spill Kills Jockey Westrope

Veteran Rider Dies After His Mount Bolts Into Rail

Inglewood, Calif. —P—A spectacular spill in a stakes race at Hollywood park Thursday brought a violent end to Jackie Westrope's 25-year riding career.

He passed the pack on the outside and was ahead, 70 yards from the wire, when his mount bolted into the rail. Westrope was thrown.

The 40-year-old former national riding champion hit the rail so hard, a track official said he bent almost double backward — around it.

1-0 Win Is Sixth Straight for FRVL Leaders; Peerenboom Drives in Run

BY JIM HARP
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Kimberly — Bob Schmidt hurled a 2-hit shutout to pace the first-place Little Chute Kimberly team to a 1-0 Fox River Valley league triumph over Freedom here Thursday night.

The win gives the LC-K team a 6-0 league record and an overall mark of 7-0. Freedom has a 3-3 league slate.

Schmidt displayed his best form of the season as he sent 14 batters away from the plate via the strikeout route. He walked only four.

Mike VandenHeuvel pitched for Freedom and allowed the heavy hitting LC-K team only four safeties, two by co-manager Floyd Hammen, VandenHeuvel struck out six and gave up two bases on balls.

Fans 9 in 4 Frames

Schmidt gave notice of what was to come as he struck out nine men in the first four innings. He fanned at least one in every frame but the last.

The only run of the game was scored in the third when Jim Nirschl was safe on Jim Vande Wettering's wild throw to first. Nirschl went to second on the error and scored on Gene Peerenboom's single past the second baseman.

The two hits off Schmidt were both by Jim Vande Wettering. He cracked a single in his first trip to the plate, then rocked a triple in the fourth but was left stranded.

Only five balls were hit out of the infield off Schmidt. Two were the hits by Vande Wettering and the others were fly balls that went for outs.

LC-K threatened in the first inning when Hammen opened with a walk and advanced to second when Rog Vander Wyl beat out a bunt. After Nirschl's

Galaxy of Links Stars Will Bid for Don Strutz' Crown

Field Primed For 1st Big Area Tourney

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

Can Don Strutz turn the highly improbable "hat trick" and win his third successive Fox Cities Amateur golf crown?

That is the most important question of the young golfing season as area links enthusiasts await the start of the fifth annual Post-Crescent sponsored 36-hole medal tournament.

A galaxy of tourney-tested stars will challenge Strutz—who won back-to-back titles in 1956-7—and two demanding lay-outs this weekend. The first half of the tourney will be staged at Neenah's Bridgewood Saturday and the home-stretch portion Sunday at Appleton Butte des Morts. The first drives are due to leave the tee at 8 o'clock each morning.

First Major Tourney

Both days' action in the area's first major tournament of the year are open to the public without charge. The only other important area-wide tourney slated for the Fox Valley in 1958 is the Fox Valley open at Kaukauna June 29.

Though the odds will be against Strutz making it three in a row, few would be audacious enough to wager heavily against the nifty swinger. Strutz, the current BDM club champ, has also won the NEW amateur and the Appleton city titles among others.

Anyone inclined to predict who the first-day leader might be could do worse than pick Strutz. Don has led after the initial 18 holes in each of the three years he's been in the tourney. Only once—in 1955—did the first day lead slip away from him.

No Talent Shortage

Strutz will begin his 1958 bid at 10:25 Saturday morning. Teeling off in his threesome will be "Chuck" Bayer and Herb Stinski.

There is no shortage of talent to place on the "stout contenders" list alongside Strutz. For example, the consistently good Don Jabas and Stinski, each of whom has already taken the highest honor in Fox Cities amateur golf. Stinski, of Ridgeway, won the inaugural tourney of the series in 1954.

Jabas, of BDM, registered a title win by a 3-stroke margin in 1955 — the first year the tourney was held at Bridgewood and BDM.

Few will sell short of the chances of Ridgeway's Charlie Steingraber, a 2-time runnerup. Steingraber last year missed catching Strutz by only one stroke, and in '54 lost out in a playoff with Stinski. Steingraber, the current Ridgeway club champ, has also won the Neenah-Menasha JC tourney. He has been shooting some excellent recent golf at Bridgewood.

Among other tourney entrants who have hit hot scores at Bridgewood of late are BDM's Jim McDonald, former University of Wisconsin golfer; Fox Valley's Tom Dupont, former St. Norbert college player; and Bridgewood's Tom Rhode.

BDM's Dan Steinberg, Jr., (1955) and Appleton Muni's Chuck Bayer (1956) are other Fox Cities tourney runnersup

Early Wynn Gives Chisox 4th Shutout In Last 5 Games

Blanks Red Sox, 4-0; Yankees' Five Homers Beat Indians, 9-3

By the Associated Press

Okay, so Al Lopez has made his point. Those winter trades that peddled power for pitching have helped give his Chicago White Sox four shutouts in five games. But they're still seventh in the American league race, 11½ games behind.

Jim Wilson, Dick Donovan and Billy Pierce, three old hands, pitched consecutive shutouts, and after taking a 5-home run pounding from Boston Wednesday, the White Sox beat the Red Sox, 4-0, yesterday on the 2-hit pitching of Early Wynn.

The veteran right-hander, acquired from Cleveland, now has a pair of 2-hitters for the season, and owns half of the six shutouts bagged by the Chicago staff. Thursday's showpiece, in which he faced but 30 men and didn't give up a hit after the sixth, was his thirty-sixth major league shutout and his tenth 2-hitter in the big time.

Didn't Gain Inch

Yet the White Sox didn't gain an inch on the first place New York Yankees, who rapped five homers and beat Cleveland, 9-3, for a 3-game sweep that left them nine games ahead of second place Boston. Washington junked its slump at five games, and ended Detroit's winning string at five, with a 4-3 decision. Baltimore jumped into fifth with a 4-2 victory at Kansas City.

Wynn, now 7-5, walked but two and struck out eight. He leads active major leaguers with 1.705 strikeouts in his 18-year career. He gave up a second-inning single by Frank Malzone and a sixth inning single by loser Frank Sullivan (4-2). Wynn fanned Ted Williams for the last out.

Early, 38, scored the only run he needed himself, on Billy Goodman's third-inning sacrifice fly.

Carey Hits Two

Andy Carey hit two of the Yankee homers, giving him eight. Both were off reliever Bob Lemon. Home runs by Enos Slaughter and Elston Howard gave New York a 3-0 lead in the second against rookie Gary Bell, who lost his first in three decisions. Hank Bauer got the other Yankee homer, while Rocky Colavito hit his eleventh, with one on in the ninth for the Indians. Johnny Kucks (5-3) went all the way with an 8-hitter.

The Orioles, in last place before sweeping three at Kansas City, took it on Gene Woodling's 2-run homer in the eighth off Ned Garver, who has lost three in a row. Ken Lehman won it in relief for the Birds, now just a half-game out of third and two shy of second. Left Albie Pearson doubled

Tommy Bolt Leads at Flint

69 Gives 'Open' King 1-Stroke Edge Over Casper

Flint, Mich. — A new attitude, a new driver and some malt tablets "to keep me from getting so doggone hungry" had Tommy Bolt in front of the pack that entered the second round of the $52,000 Flint Open Golf tournament today.

While the newly crowned U.S. Open champion stroked into the lead in one of the richest tournaments on the circuit, the game's biggest drawing card was in danger of failing to survive the 36-hole cut for the second straight week.

Sam Is 6 'Over'

Sam Snead, one of the pre-tournament favorites despite the fact he failed to qualify for the final 36 holes of last week's U.S. Open, had a 6-over-par 78 that left him nine strokes off the pace.

Bolt's 3-under-par 69, fashioned mainly from a blazing putter that counted seven 1-put greens, pooh-poohed the so-called letdown that has plagued such golfers as Carey Middlecoff, Ed Gurgol, Jack Fleck and Dick Mayer after their National Open triumphs.

"I had my letdown the day after I won it," said Bolt, who claims he has abdicated as king of the club throwers.

Bolt held a 1-stroke advantage over Bill Casper, Jr. of Apple Valley, Calif.

Only 15 from a starting field of 140 had par-or-better scores. And 39 of the competitors had scores in the 80s, against par of 36-38-72.

Other par breakers at 71 are

San Francisco Bows to Bucs, Fails to Gain

Semproch Hurls Phils to 9-3 Win Over Dodgers

By the Associated Press

Second-place San Francisco failed to take advantage of Milwaukee's loss Thursday. Pittsburgh scored a 6-5 win over the Giants, keeping the west coast entry two games shy of the Braves.

Philadelphia rapped Los Angeles, 9-3. Cincinnati and St. Louis were idled by rain.

Right-hander Ray Semproch won his eighth for the Phils and had a no-hitter for 6 1-3 innings. He had a 3-hit shutout until the ninth, when Joe Pignatano, who hit his first major league homer Wednesday, socked No. 2 and "Duke" Snider belted his fifth. Stan Lopata hit a 3-run homer in the first and the Phils then scored five in the third with six consecutive hits off starter-loser Johnny Podres (7-5) and Don Drysdale.

Southpaw Don Gross fanned pinch-hitter Jim Finigan to save Ronnie Kline's seventh victory for the Pirates after the Giants had scored three in the ninth, two on rookie Bob Schmidt's ninth homer. The Pirates beat Al Worthington (5-3) with four in the seventh, triggered by Bob Skinner's 2-run sixth homer.

Expect Release of Willie Mays From Hospital Today

5,442 Watch Day-Sox Beat Rochester, 6-4

New York — Willie Mays, leading National league hitter despite a 2-week slump, was expected to rejoin the San Francisco Giants today after an over-night hospital stay for a physical check-up.

A terse hospital report said only that Mays had been examined Thursday and had remained there for the night. A hospital spokesman added, however, that Willie "probably will be released today, or tomorrow at the latest," and that a report of the examination would be given Giants Manager Bill Rigney.

Mike DeJohn 7-5 to Beat Baker Tonight

Syracuse, N. Y. — Mike DeJohn, a handsome heavyweight with a great potential, is a 7-5 choice at War Memorial auditorium tonight.

A red hot contender eight months ago, the 26-year-old Syracuse slammer now needs a decisive victory over the 31-year-old Baker to get back in the limelight.

Last October the rangy, hard hitting DeJohn scored a sensational 1-round knockout over then unbeaten Alex Miteff of Argentina.

Then he remained on the sidelines until last April 23 when he met Cuba's Nino Valdes, another happy-go-lucky character, and lost by a narrow, split decision.

DeJohn, at about 204, is now ranked ninth. Baker no longer is ranked. Bob's record, numerically at least, is good. He is 50-11-1 with 19 knockouts. The 6-2, 215-pounder won his last three fights in 1957 and hasn't fought since December.

DeJohn's record is 34-4-1 with 25 knockouts.

Davenport Crowd Is Largest of Three-1 Season

A youth night crowd of 5,442 at Davenport saw the Three-I league pacesetters maintain their lead with a 6-4 victory over Rochester Thursday night.

The 5,442 fans at Davenport surpassed the 5,377 which attended the Fox Cities-Green Bay Bluejays game at Goodland field at the Appleton Northside Advancement association's Booster Night May 28 as the largest crowd of the Three-I league season.

In other games Cedar Rapids shut out Green Bay, 7-0, and Burlington pushed Fox Cities back into fifth place with a 5-1 decision.

Lindstrom Homers

In the Dav-Sox 12-hit attack Chuck Lindstrom banged a homer and added a single while Don Bacon and Bob Sagers collected three hits apiece. Rochester's rookie shortstop, Dick Howser, had 2 for 3, including a triple.

Cedar Rapids' 18-year-old bonus pitcher, Bob Hendley, fanned 7 and retired 18 straight over 5 innings starting with the third.

Green Bay manager Pete Reiser sat on the sidelines with three cracked ribs suffered last Monday in an intra-squad game.

Spahn Yields 4 More Homers; Braves Lose

ord now is 8-4 after being 6-0 as recently as May 19.

The Braves, by the way, have lost only three of their last eight starts and Spahn was the loser each time.

Hobbie evened his record at 5-5, including 2-0 in relief. He also tamed the Braves in relief at Chicago June 10 — the day he was shunted to the bullpen because he couldn't go nine innings.

As a fireman, Hobbie has given up only one run in 19 innings and none in his last 17.

Maintain Lead
The National League-leading Braves maintained their 2-game lead over the San Francisco Giants, who also lost. That was about the only consolation for the 21,491 who turned out at County stadium.

Taylor, a 5-9 Cuban who batted only .217 at Dallas last season, took 40 minutes of extra batting practice Wednesday afternoon opening his stance and shortening his stride at the direction of Scheffing and Coach George Myatt. Scheffing said he and his coaches have been working with Taylor off and on "trying to help him."

Tony Steals Home
Help him it did. He doubled in the first inning, went to third on an infield out and then stole home, sliding under Spahn's tardy flip to Del Rice. It was Taylor's tenth theft in 11 tries.

Moryn's first homer of the campaign gave starter John Briggs a 2-0 lead in the fourth, but the rookie right-hander couldn't stand the prosperity. Faulty control kept him in hot water in the early frames, but in the fourth the Braves pounced on him for three runs to take a 3-0 lead.

Rice's double cashed Harry Hanebrink, who had singled, and Spahn's 4-bagger converted Rice. The Braves loaded the bases with two out, but reliever Billy Henry got Frank Torre on a called third strike.

Johnny Logan singled and Andy Pakko smashed a pinch-hit triple in the fifth for Al Braves' fourth run, but from there on in Mr. Hobbie kept the door closed. The Cubs kept pecking away at Spahn, getting single runs in the sixth on Moryn's fifteenth circuit blow and in the seventh on Dark's second. Dark tied the score at 4-4. Taylor's proved the clincher.

Torre flunked another bases-loaded situation in the eighth, flying out to center this time.

He left a total of nine runners stranded, five of them in scoring position, as he went 0 for 5. Spahn was the Braves' batting star with 3-for-4, which raised his batting average to .396. He isn't paid to hit how-ever.

Bob Rush, 4-2 will open against the St. Louis Cardinals tonight. Vinegar Bend Mizell, 3-5, will start for the Redbirds.

who are back to challenge for the No. 1 spot.

Another of the top-notchers in the field is John "Jumbo" Hayes. Though the press of business has cut down the amount of his play in recent years, he rates as a threat in any tourney he enters. He finished sixth in last year's Fox Cities tourney. Hayes, the 1953 state titlist, has also won such honors as the Appleton city crown and the NEW best ball crown (in partnership with Al Rudoff).

Ridgeway's Chet Bland and Fox Valley's Wayne Hull, who pecked away at Spahn, getting single runs in the sixth on Moryn's fifteenth circuit blow and in the seventh on Dark's second. Dark tied the score at 4-4. Taylor's proved the clincher.

Torre flunked another bases-loaded situation in the eighth, flying out to center this time.

Green Bay Bluejays Manager Pete Reiser had some observations the other day on his interesting lineup — juggling which saw slugger Frank Howard batting lead-off recently.

Reiser said that one reason he put $100,000 bonus player Howard in the lead-off spot was that he wanted Frank, currently the club's No. 2 hitter, to get more at bats.

Another reason was that "it gave the players something to talk about in the clubhouse before the game. Any time you can do anything to get these youngsters to concentrate on the game, you've accomplished something," Reiser said.

Reiser says that Howard is only a year or two away from the big leagues because "he practices with a purpose. Nothing about baseball aimless to him."

Either Carlos "Potato" Pascual is overly modest or he has a poor memory or I wasn't listening very clearly when I interviewed him for a "Meet horse coming through to take it all."

This will be the first major tournament played on the newly revamped Bridgwood course. With only a limited number of long holes, the emphasis is on controlled, accurate golf. Par is 72.

Bridgwood's distance of 6,015 yards is some 700 yards shorter than it was when the Fox Cities tourney was played there on the old 18-hole design at three years ago. Strutz shot 73 to lead the '55 parade at Bridgwood. Other leading first-day scores there were Jabas, 74; Steinberg and Hayes, 75; and Baerenwald and Bland, 76s.

Difficult Par 70
Sunday, the players will try to carve a difficult par 70 out of BDM's 6,143 yards of rolling, eye-filling terrain. Back in 1955, Chuck Bayer and Steingraber each produced a 74 — the best tourney score.

The scheduled 18 tournament holes in 1956 at BDM were never completed because of a disrupting storm.

A total of 101 golfers is slated to launch their bids Saturday. Several original entrants have been forced to withdraw because of unavoidable circumstances. They include "Pike" Peterson, Elmer Vandenberg, John De Young, Bob Deros and Len Deros.

The number of entries by clubs or courses now stands at: Reid Muni. 38; Ridgeway, 17; Bridgwood, 16; BDM, 11; Fox Valley, 11; Riverview, 5; and North Shore, 3.

The first six named are eligible to play in the team competition. The five lowest individual scores will form the basis for the calculations.

Ridgeway Defends
Ridgeway, winner by one stroke over BDM last year, is the defending team champ.

Ties for first and second places in the individual competition and first place in the team event will be broken in sudden-death playoffs.

The tourney officials reserve the right to scratch any golfers more than two minutes late for their scheduled tee off time. This stipulation is even more important this year because of the unprecedented size of the field.

Because of the impossibility of rescheduling the event, one day's play will constitute the full tourney if weather conditions force termination of action at either course.

Hits Even, but Bees Post 5-1 Win Over Foxes

Payne, who now has had six hits in his last 11 at bats, rapped a pair of singles in four trips. Menasha's Ron Dibellus poked the first double of his professional career in the fifth to drive in the club's only run. Dibellus was at second base, the fourth position he's played in four games with the Foxes. Ron, who has now had five hits in 15 at-bats for a .333 mark, was moved up to the No. 2 spot in the batting order and slumping shortstop Don Dantoni was demoted to the eighth position.

Regular second baseman Billy Bone was benched, grounding out in a ninth-inning pinch hitting appearance.

Scores On Single
Burlington grabbed a 1-0 lead in the first when Russ Gragg doubled between the outfielders in left center, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on Dave Hanrahan's sharp single to left.

The Bees contributed three more off Mitchell in the fourth. Loudonback's seventh homer of the season, just over the left center field fence at about the 345 foot mark scored Don Voigt, who had walked.

Caviness walked and went to second on Jim Woods' infield hit, on which the Foxes' "Potato" Pascual made a nifty stop. Walks to Gragg and Hanrahan forced in a run and brought Stinson on the scene. Pascual then made another fine stop to throw out Gordie Massa and retire the side.

In the Fox Cities fifth, with two out, Tano singled to left and then Dibellus poked his double over right fielder Voigt's head, to score Tano. "Tex" Taylor popped out to end the brief threat.

Caviness dropped his season's fourth homer about 20 feet beyond the left field fence at the 320-foot mark to make it 5-1 in the sixth.

The Foxes posed mild threats in the eighth, when Taylor doubled with one out, and in the ninth, when Payne and Dantoni slugged consecutive singles with one out, but Moore got himself out of danger both times.

Westrope Dies In Track Spill was the horse," said a Hollywood park official.

His mount, a 3-year-old filly named Well Away, began lunging in toward the rail near the end of the $28,350 Hollywood Oaks, a mile and an eighth feature event. Said Wendell Cassidy, presiding race steward: "Westrope was doing all he could to straighten her—even hitting her alongside the head. Suddenly the filly bolted into the fence, throwing Westrope."

Fred Smith was killed at the same track in 1951. Other spills claimed Georgia Woolf at Santa Anita in 1946 and Richard Thompson at Gulfstream in 1952.

Westrope's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Westrope of suburban Monrovia, were at the hospital when he died. He also leaves his widow, Cecilia, and four daughters, Pamela, 14, Jan, 13, Jackie, 2, and Jill, 3 months.

Foxes Option Guenther to Missoula Club

The Fox Cities Foxes Thursday night optioned bonus right-hander Bert Guenther to Missoula of the Class C Pioneer league.

Guenther, whose record here was 0-4, was in his first season of pro ball after being signed off the Miami (O.) University campus for an $18,000 bonus. He was out of action for 10 days while here with an infected toe.

Catcher John Marr was to join the Foxes today or Saturday from Washington's Class AA Southern association farm club at Chattanooga. The right-handed hitting Marr batted .185 in 51 games for Chattanooga last season.

Pitcher Joe McCrudden, who was released by the Green Bay Bluejays recently, worked out with the Foxes before Thursday evening's game and was to do so again this evening. The Foxes are giving the righthander a try-out.

A re-check of Tuesday evening's George Walter Brewery union Booster Night attendance made the figure 1,166 instead of the previously announced 1,083.

COF Grabs 1st From UCT in Fraternal Loop

Wins Forfeit From YMCA as SSAC Drops Ex-Leaders

Thursday's Results:
Pond's 21, Red and Gun Club 17.
SSAC 12, UCT 10.
COF over YMCA, forfeit.
Company A vs. Company D postponed.

COF climbed into first place in the Fraternal Softball league Thursday night by merely appearing at the ball park. The Foresters won on a forfeit from YMCA, while UCT, the ex-leaders, dropped a close one to the SSAC, 12-10, and fell into second place.

In the other games, Pond's topped the Red and Gun club in a slugfest, 21-17, and the Company A-Company D game was postponed, since both clubs are in the national guard summer training camp.

The UCT scored four runs in the seventh but couldn't overcome the winners' lead. Dave Schuster was the winning pitcher, and John Jooss the loser. It was UCT's first loss of the season.

Pitchers Bill Bedard of Pond's and Jim Heimerman of Red and Gun club served up several gopher balls. Jim Yeak-ey hit a 3-run, Ray Renier a 2-run, and "Chuck" Kunitz a 1-run homer for the winners. Circuit clouts by the losers included Jim Osborne's, with two men on, and Earl Heinritz', also with two on.

Two Foundry Groups Set Safety Record

Pattern Storage, Shop Mark 2,000 Accident-Free Days

Neenah — The pattern shop and pattern storage departments of the Neenah Foundry company set a new safety record Wednesday when they completed 2,000 working days without a lost-time accident.

The record, which has taken since Feb. 10, 1952, to set, involves well over a third of a million accident-free man hours of work.

The 29 employees and supervisors in the two departments include Lester Herzfeldt, Buford Tewes, Walter Pritchard, Duane Schultz, Clarence Turkow, Alfred Sundin, Alton Schnetzer, Gerald Freier, Robert Hurst, Harland Anderson, Richard Anderson, Ray Jakubek, Milton Fuerst, Gene Willer, George Heegeman, Frank Stanelle, Richard Seidler, Duane LaPlante, Ronald Luedke, Alfred Sorenson, George Buch, Raymond Collins, Lowell Grosskopf, William Hoks, Walter Hauke, George Werner, Donald Schanke, Gilbert Mitchell and William Schmidt.

Oscar Judd

Oscar Judd, 91, Menasha, Dies

Served Many Years As Superintendent At Pulley Company

Menasha — Oscar Judd, 91, 308 Tayco street, died at 5:30 this morning after being in poor health for two months. He was born Sept. 12, 1866, at Jonesville, Ind., and was one of Menasha's oldest residents.

Judd came to Menasha at the age of 27 from Columbus, Ind., where he was employed at the Reeves Pulley company, to be superintendent at the Menasha Wood Split Pulley company, retiring at the age of 84.

He was married Nov. 22, 1897, and his wife died Jan. 3 of last year, shortly after they celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary.

Funeral services will be at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Laemmrich Funeral home with burial in St. Margaret cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Horace Ballou and Mrs. D. J. Buchanan of Neenah and Mrs. Milan Endter of Menasha; one son, Dewey Neenah; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Twin City Births

Neenah — Theda Clark hospital today reported the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Verbrick, 771 De Pere street, Menasha, and the birth of a boy to Mr. and Mrs. John Stulp, 333 Third street, Neenah. St. Elizabeth hospital, Appleton, this morning reported the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. William Beson, route 1, Menasha.

Chief Lashes Out at Vandalism to Parks

Warns Jefferson Recreation Area May be Closed After Dark if Destruction Continues

Menasha — Jefferson park may be closed after dark if there isn't a decrease in vandalism at the recreational area, Police Chief Peter Clark warned today.

The chief pointed out he is getting complaints almost daily about picnic tables being thrown into the lake, trees damaged and flowers destroyed. "If this goes on I'm going to ask the council and park board to close up the park after dark," he declared.

To see no one uses the park after dark, if it is closed, policemen will patrol the area, the chief said. He pointed out it's foolish for the city to keep spending money for park improvements when property is continually destroyed.

The park department reported this morning that a bench had been thrown into the water and the bark of a young tree had been cut off by a knife sometime Thursday night.

This destroying of park property is "kid's stuff" and has to be stopped, Clark maintained. He asked park users to report to the police department if they see property being damaged.

Talking to the Rotary club Wednesday afternoon, Mayor R. G. DuCharme stated one of his pet peeves was the increasing vandalism to city property.

Former Teacher at Neenah School Dies

Neenah — Mrs. Elmer Wuestenberg, the former Miss Eva Taras who taught for four years at Trinity Lutheran school here up to about 1942, died Thursday at Watertown where she had been living.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at St. John's Lutheran church at Watertown and friends may call at the Hafemeister Funeral home.

Survivors include the husband, her mother and three sisters.

Reconsider PSC Order on Dam Removal

Neenah — The Wisconsin public service commission will reconsider its order of Feb. 6, requiring R. C. Bridges to remove two earthen dams he had erected across the Neenah slough on Bridgewood golf course.

The PSC set no date for the reconsideration hearing.

Nearby property owners complained of the dams and the consequent rerouting of the slough in September, 1956. The PSC ordered Bridges to remove the dams in February, 1958, ruling that the stream had been navigable at the point where they had been constructed.

Bridges has not removed the dams. He applied for the reconsideration on Feb. 25.

Name Omitted

Neenah — The name of Marilyn Kuhn, Neenah High school junior, was accidentally omitted from the list of NHS students on the "A" honor roll for the second semester. The list was published in the June 12 Post-Crescent.

Three Twin City National Guard companies are now taking training at the annual encampment of the thirty-second division at Camp McCoy this week and next. Edward E. Eisch, 645 Milwaukee street, Menasha, and Mary E. Wilz, 614 Second street, Menasha, $15 each for driving with an expired license.

Seven drivers forfeited $15 for illegal parking. They were Steve Madden, 125 N. Drew street, Appleton; Fred Deutsch, Jr., 423 Park drive, Neenah; Ann Birchler, 1007 N. Owaissa street, Appleton; Glen W. Nau, 138 N. Bennett street, Appleton; John P. Stinski, 921 Lin-

Twin City Deaths

Sydney H. Smith

Allenville — Sydney H. Smith, 70, Allenville, suffered a stroke at 4:30 Thursday afternoon and died while being taken to Mercy hospital at Oshkosh. He was born Nov. 24, 1887, in the town of Vinland.

He took over operation of his parents' farm upon his graduation from the agricultural school at Winneconne and remained on the farm to 1929 when he was employed by the Chicago and North Western Railroad, retiring in June of last year. He lived in the town of Clayton until moving here in 1938.

Funeral services will be at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Community Baptist church here with burial in the Allenville cemetery. Friends may call at the Mueller Funeral home at Winneconne Sunday afternoon and evening and at the church after 11 o'clock Monday morning.

Survivors are the widow; two daughters, Mrs. Phyllis Brammer of St. Paul, Minn., and Mrs. Beverly Beck of Omro; one son, Lyle, route 1, Oshkosh; one sister, Mrs. Ira Christoph, Waukegan, and nine grandchildren.

Neenah — Walter Chrapla, 721 Mitchell street, has been named chairman of the 1959 Neenah - Menasha heart fund drive.

Chrapla, an investment analyst at National Manufacturers bank, served as city chairman during the 1958 campaign and has been active in heart fund work since 1956. The Twin Cities exceeded its goal by more than $1,000 in '58.

The drive is conducted each February and proceeds are used for service education and research.

County Police Check 5,032 Cars

Oshkosh — Winnebago county police checked 5,032 cars for safety defects between June 2 and 13, Sheriff Charles L. Lowry announced this morning. Trucks accounted for 301 of the total vehicles checked.

Police found 585 vehicles defective in the checks, of which 37 were trucks. All defects have been corrected.

Defective head lights accounted for 107 automobile violations and 8 truck violations. Defective tail lights were found in 89 cars and 7 trucks.

Sentenced to 15 Days On Drunkenness Plea

Neenah — Roy Kuester, 214 Walnut street, pleaded guilty of drunkenness this morning and was sentenced to 15 days in the county jail by Police Justice Edmund P. Arpin. Kuester was arrested at 5:30 Thursday afternoon at his home and was held overnight in the Menasha jail.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Paul Albrecht and Mrs. James Coghlan of Neenah and Mrs. Clyde Behling of Milwaukee; three sons, Walter, Anton and William Handler, all of Neenah; 19 grandchildren, 35 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Two Large Additions to the Immaculate Heart of Mary convent at Brighton Beach, which cost an estimated $275,000, were dedicated Thursday morning with Bishop Stanislaus V. Bona of the Green Bay diocese giving the blessing. New additions include the altar part of the chapel, shown above, the dining room, upper right, and a recreation room in the north wing, which contains 17 new rooms for the sisters, on the right. Sister Mary Egidin, mother superior of the convent, shown straightening the flowers in the dining room, estimated the chairs and table in the room at 180 years old. (Post-Crescent Photos)

Convent Additions Maintain English Architecture Styling

Menasha — The old English architectural styling at the Sisters of the Holy Family convent at Brighton Beach was maintained when two large additions were added to the 31-year old building recently. The additions were dedicated Thursday morning.

The convent, formerly the property of Col. John Sensenbrenner, is used as a rest and convalescent home for the sisters. Before the construction of the new north and south wings, which more than doubled the capacity, the convent estate could provide accommodations for 10 sisters. There is now room for 27 sisters.

Rooms for 17 sisters are contained in the new 2-story north wing. Most of the bedrooms, which are 10 by 10 feet and a primrose color, look out onto Lake Winnebago.

Also located in the north wing are a sewing room, ironing room and a community room. The community room, which is 10 by 20 feet, is used for recreational purposes by the sisters.

South Wing
A sacristy and quarters for two priests are contained in the new south wing which is attached to the chapel. The chapel also was extended about five feet and a new altar and statues installed.

Another addition is an oak paneled dining room with two bay windows. Used in the room are 12 chairs and a table estimated to be 180 years old. The former Sensenbrenner residence was turned into a convent on June 22, 1948, and was built in 1927. This was the first addition to the building since it was donated to the sisters.

Taking part in the dedication ceremonies were Bishop Stanislaus Bona of the Green Bay diocese, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. C. A. Ropella, diocesan chancellor, and the Rev. George Massey, resident chaplain. Col. and Mrs. John Sensenbrenner and several members of the Menasha area clergy were on hand, also.

The Meyer Construction company of Oshkosh built the additions which were completed on May 20.

Calvary Baptist Tells Plans for Vacation School

Menasha — Vacation Bible school will begin Tuesday at Calvary Baptist church and will be held through Thursday, July 3. Nelson Kring, a youth worker from Chattanooga, Tenn., will conduct the vacation Bible school this summer. He is the field director of the Hi-Way Bi-Way Christian crusade and his daily program will include illustrated Bible lessons and missionary stories, object lessons, special music and gospel film stories.

The school will be held from 9 to 11 o'clock each morning and the closing program will be on July 3.

Ski Enthusiasts

Dick Kimberly Directs

Local Water Skiers Practice For Independence Day Show

BY MARY JENSEN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Neenah — Adventurous men, and women too, are found the world over. Some prefer to probe the ocean depths, with only a thin rubber skin and veritable lungs strapped firmly to their backs to shield them from unknown mysteries of the sea. Others flee the earthly pressures only when they are seated high above the ground in an iron bird, crushing through space.

The water also serves man in another way. By harnessing the power of a boat he can step gracefully upon water skis and skitter blithely across the ripples, swooping in and out of the waves, feeling the wind and spray exhilarate him, experiencing exciting speed and coordination that is far easier to achieve than it appears.

On July 4, Fox Cities residents will have the chance to view a water ski show directed by Richard Kimberly who has skied with world champions while visiting at the famed Cypress Gardens. He will plan all the ski events including jumping, clown acts, tricks and pyramids and will coach those who will be skiers.

Trick Ski Events
The show which will be staged at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, will take place on the Neenah river between Doty and Riverside parks and also will feature such feats as a complete 360 degree turn on skis, skiing sideways and shoe skiing, which entails slipping through the water on 17 inch-long skis. Girls will greet the audience with the skier's salute and then perform ballet routines.

Kimberly, who has elected to compose his troupe entirely of local people, will coach them daily prior to the show. He has been skiing for over 10 years and for the past two years has been perfecting tricks and jumping. He feels that skiing is a fun and excitement-affording activity, as well as being a wonderful body conditioner, preparing anyone well for athletics of any kind.

Exercising in advance to ready the before latent muscles will enable one to ski with more ease and less strain and stiffness, Kimberly advises. Practice too, is the best prescription for achieving real skill which can be mastered and ultimately achieved simply and without danger.

Behind the Scene
As in any production, the performers are not the only stars. Behind the scene workers bring reality to a plan as will the boat drivers, rope tenders, and persons who handle the pick-up boats during the show. They too must be well informed as to ski techniques and spend many hours in practice. Those who will serve in this way include John R. Kimberly, Jr., Gavin Young, Porter Thompson, both of Menasha, and James Coley, Appleton. Skiers will be Lyall Stilt, Jr., Neenah, Donald Turner, Robert Buchanan, Mary and Judy Jensen, all of Menasha, Nick Baldwin, Cathy Deusch, Sherman Marty and Brocky Whitling, all of Neenah, and Richard Kimberly, skier and coordinator.

A one-time outboard racer and active sailor, Kimberly lauds water skiing the "best sport," where you can get robust exercise, bask in the sun, and swim practically simultaneously.

Enthusiastic Skier
His enthusiasm for the sport and drive toward perfection infects skiers, anxious to surge with the carefree feeling that comes when floating over mirror-like waters that seem to beckon invitingly, both comforting and challenging.

A gratifying sense of accomplishment permeates weary but relaxed bones after a trial of coordination and views of the fleet-footed Roman god Mercury with wings on his heels crowds into imaginative minds. It is a ride with the wind.

Through the Independence day show, Kimberly hopes to indicate that water skiing is a family sport; each member of the family readily able to grasp the technique and enjoy the thrills, increasing his interests and summer fun too.

OES Card Club

Neenah — Neenah chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Card club will hold a picnic at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Neenah Masonic temple. A business session and cards will follow the picnic.

Hostesses will be Mrs. J. M. Heuer, Mrs. C. J. Cannon and Mrs. A. L. Witt.

Sweeten Berries Before Freezing for Best Results

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau

Oshkosh — Strawberries will have better flavor and color if sweetened before freezing. The fruit loses less Vitamin C than berries frozen without sugar. The best flavor is obtained if the berries are mixed with dry sugar rather than using a sugar sirup, says Miss Lois Klusmeyer, county home agent.

For crushed or sliced berries mix one part sugar with four parts berries. This would be about three-fourths cup sugar for each quart of washed and hulled berries. Slice the berries about one layer deep into a large shallow pan, then sprinkle on the sugar. It is not necessary to mix and crush the fruit, if you let the berries stand a few minutes. Then package the fruit into freezer containers, leaving one-half inch headspace. If whole berries are desired for toppings, prepare a 40 per cent sugar sirup. This preserves the shape and texture of whole berries. To make 40 per cent sirup, dissolve three cups sugar in four cups hot water. Cool the sirup before using.

When preserving food, the home agent advises selecting the top quality fruits and vegetables for freezing and can those below top grade. Many of the heavy cartons can be reused for freezing, but the inner bags usually need to be replaced.

It is not a good idea to overstock on metal lids for canning and to save them over from year to year. The sealing compound on metal lids is apt to dry out and result in an incomplete seal.

Hubbard-Peterson VFW Elects Delegate to Attend New York City Camp

Neenah — Mrs. Adolph Blair was elected delegate and Mrs. Alvin Grambsch, alternate, to attend the national encampment of Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliaries Aug. 28-30 in New York City. The election was held at the Thursday evening Hubbard-Peterson VFW auxiliary meeting at the Whiting Boat house.

Attending the state encampment in Green Bay next week will be Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Emil Blank, delegate, Mrs. Warren Krueger, alternate, Mrs. Louis Steichen, Mrs. Maryie Hawkinson, Mrs. Grambsch, Mrs. Janita Pahl and Mrs. William Campbell.

A donation was voted to the cerebral palsy fund. Mrs. Steichen, chairman of the poppy committee, announced plans for the sale and reports on the Memorial day service of the auxiliary and a memorial service in Stockbridge were given by Mrs. Grambsch. Mrs. Grambsch and Mrs. Hawkinson were named to a calling committee.

The ways and means committee will begin a new project of game parties after the July 17 meeting. The state picnic for post and auxiliary units will be held July 13 at King. The auditing committee, which includes Mrs. John Nickasch, chairman, Mrs. Hawkinson and Mrs. Steichen, will meet at the home of the chairman, 603 S. Park avenue, July 1.

Mrs. Blank reported for the hospital committee and Mrs. Blair reported on the first house party. Mrs. Blair will attend the presidents school of instruction June 27 in Green Bay.

A family polluck supper to be held July 8 at Smith park.

Mrs. Mary Adair Will be Honored On 82nd Birthday

Neenah — Mrs. Mary Adair, who resides at the Winnebago County Home for the Retired, will be honored at a Saturday luncheon party at the YWCA in observance of her 82nd birthday.

Family members attending the luncheon will include Mrs. Adair's children, Mrs. Scott Fithian, Neenah, and Harry Luetke, Seattle, Wash., and relatives from Chicago.

Eagles Auxiliary Has Season's Committees

Menasha — Committees for the season were announced by Mrs. Leo Dorn, new president of the Menasha Eagles auxiliary at the unit's Thursday evening meeting at the Menasha Eagles hall.

Serving on the investigating committee will be Mrs. Henry Wiechmann, Mrs. Dominic Pawlowski and Mrs. Harold Zimmer. The grievance committee includes Mrs. Clara Geiger, Mrs. Alice Scovronski, Mrs. Joseph Omachinski and Mrs. Adam Schwartzbauer.

Mrs. Alex Andrews is chairman of the delinquent committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Reuben Hoelzel and Mrs. John Maciejewski. Finance committee members are Mrs. Alex Volkman, Miss Marie Kleinhaus, Mrs. Rita Trader and Mrs. Dorothy Birling. Publicity will be handled by Mrs. Herman Bruce.

Sunshine Committee
Chairman of the standing committee is Mrs. Ambrose Tuchscherer and heading the special committee is Mrs. George Guderski. Mrs. Robert Dorn is sunshine committee chairman. Members of the visiting committee are Mrs. Martin Arno, Mrs. Clara Heindl and Mrs. Steven Mitchell.

On the entertainment committee are Mrs. Roy Fickel, Mrs. George Perry, Mrs. Roger Hoolihan, Mrs. Harold Bero and Mrs. Herbert Spears. Mrs. Harry Webb is the auditor and Mrs. Hoolihan is in charge of the scrapbook.

Other officers of the group are Mrs. Guderski, past president; Mrs. Sam Tuchscherer, vice president; Mrs. Albert Elmer, secretary; Mrs. Wiechmann, treasurer; Mrs. William Smith, chaplain; Mrs. John Wippich, outside guard; Mrs. Louise Smith, inside guard; Mrs. Urban Brantmeier, conductor, and Mrs. Arno, new trustee.

YWCA Golfers List Winners

Neenah — Golf prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Fulkerson, low gross minus putts; Mrs. Chris Grode, low score on number 4, and Mrs. A. J. Boreson, good fellowship, when the YWCA Women's Golf group played Thursday at the Bridge-wood course. Mrs. Robert Greenwald and Mrs. Carl Hoth were chairmen.

Mrs. Ronald Carter and Mrs. Robert Tuttrup will serve on next week's committee.

Parents Tell Betrothal of Miss Edwards

Neenah — Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Edwards, Richland Center, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, Neenah, to James Tydrich, Jr., son of the senior Tydrichs, Bloom City.

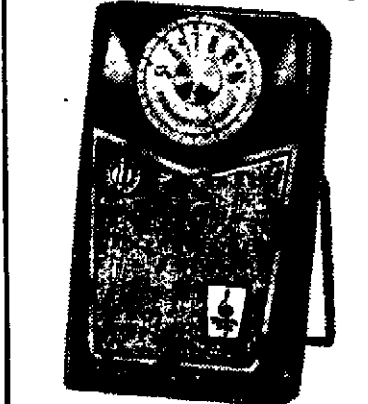

The bride-elect attended Lawrence college and the University of Wisconsin. She was graduated from the Madison General Hospital School for Medical Technologists, and is currently employed at Theda Clark hospital.

Mr. Tydrich was graduated from the University of Wisconsin where he will begin medical school in the fall. Miss Edwards and her fiancé will be married Sept. 6.

Hummingbird Picks Coin Slot for Nest

Sunol, Calif. —Encas Kane stopped to make a telephone call at a battered old booth on the outskirts of town.

He was halted at the door by this sign: "Don't use this phone until the eggs are hatched."

Inside was a tiny hummingbird's nest, woven in the coin return slot. There were three tiny eggs.

Kane postponed his call.

Neenah — Gilbert Paper moved back into a three-way tie for first place in the American division of the Twin City Industrial Softball league by blanking Soo Line 12-0 Thursday night. Gilbert's, the Marathon Packers and Mam Office all have 7-1 marks.

Strange Paper gave Banta's title hopes a serious jolt by edging the Publishers 5-4 in 10 innings. The Marathon Ramblers are well on their way to the National league title with seven straight wins while the other contenders, Banta's, Bergstrom's, Lakeview and Neenah Foundry, now all have three defeats.

Gets 21 Walks
In Thursday's other action, Wooden Ware took advantage of 21 walks to blast defending champion Badger-Globe 19-6 and Wisconsin Tissue Mills took a 1-3 triumph over Northwestern Electrotape.

Thursday's games were the last until mid-July. No games are scheduled Tuesday. The all star game will be played next Thursday. The following week had been left open for makeup games but none have been rained out and during the week of July 8 the annual Industrial tournament will be played.

Strange Paper tied Banta's at three-all with two runs in the last of the sixth inning. The Publishers went ahead with a run in the top of the tenth but Strange's won with two in the day night. Gilbert's, the Marathon Packers and Mam Office all have 7-1 marks.

Drum Takes Loss
"Wimpy" Drum, who relieved Bob Ross, was the losing pitcher and Harry Huff gained the win. Strange's had a 13-8 hit advantage. Versteegen and Peterson each had three safeties and Zuelke, Huff and Verkuilen made two. Drum, Dick Machamer and Hank Horn had two for Banta's.

Joe Bonnick hurled a seven-hitter as Gilbert's picked up its seventh straight win. He walked two. Gilbert's made eight hits and received 14 walks off the slants of two Soo Line hurlers.

Gilbert's scored three runs in the first and four in the fourth and sixth. Vic Grosskopf had three hits for the winners. Rendenman was the loser.

Makes 12 Hits
Wooden Ware tallied 12 runs in the fourth inning and six in the sixth on its way to a win over the Badgers. Bob Cole was the winning pitcher and Larry Marquardt took the loss.

Wooden Ware only made seven hits. LeComte had two Lemke and Brice each had two bingles for the Globe.

Summer to Arrive Clear, Cool Saturday

A spring season that produced some crazy, mixed-up weather in the Fox Cities as well as the rest of the state will end Saturday about the same as it began—clear and cool.

Thursday the weather spurted toward summer with the temperature at its high 82 degrees. The overnight low was 59 and this morning the overcast sky looked more like the beginning of a fall day than a step away from summer.

The arrival of the new season is scheduled officially at 4:57 Saturday afternoon.

Minimum temperatures in the state early today ranged from the 40s over the extreme northwestern portion to around 60 over the extreme northwestern portion.

State Low, 41

Shell Lake, near Spooner, had the state low of 41 degrees. Clearing and cooler weather is due to overspread the state today and tonight.

Maximum temperatures in the state Thursday ranged from 82 at Black River Falls, Eau Claire and La Crosse to 74 at Clark Falls and Superior-Duluth.

An inch of rain, accompanied by some hail, fell in the northern portion of Milwaukee in a 45-minute period Thursday afternoon. The hail was the size of marbles and lasted about 10 minutes.

Shares Stage Broad Rally

Buyers Pick Up Stock Following Thursday Sell-Off

New York —(U.S.D.A.)— The stock market staged a broad rally in active trading early this afternoon.

Dealings were heavy as buyers picked up stock following Thursday's late sell-off which brought the worst market drop in more than a month.

Key issues rose from fractions to a point or more. Rails advanced briskly from the start.

Market Reassured

The market as a whole was reassured by word that the federal reserve board is far from ready yet to resume a tight money policy.

Steels, oils, tobaccos, copiers, chemicals and motors showed plus signs. Airlines were mixed. Distillers and electronic stocks remained ragged. Utilities were mixed.

Calf Buffalos Train

St. Anthony, Idaho —(U.S.D.A.)— A frightened calf wandered on a railroad track west of here and refused to get off. A slow-moving freight train chugged along behind it for several miles before the calf came to a bridge and jumped off the track.

Test Looming for Liquor Store Rules

Judge Schmiede Asks DA to Get Opinion on Sales to Minors

A clear ruling on regulations for package stores in Outagamie county on sales of beer to youths over 18 and under 21 may be in sight.

Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiede today asked Dist. Atty. George Greisch to get an attorney general's ruling on just what the state law regulating beer sales in package stores means.

The question arose during a preliminary hearing on a charge of allowing two minors in Templin's Beer depot, 1117 N. Mason street, brought against Clayton E. Templin, operator. Templin is free on $50 bond. He denies the charge. The youths were fined $40 each May 6 for buying beer and furnishing it to minors.

Rules On Minors

Templin's attorney, James R. Joyce, claimed a 1948 attorney general's ruling specifies that youths over 18 and under 21 may enter and buy beer in a package store if they do not loiter and do not consume the beer on the premises. Under an informal opinion from a former district attorney, Joyce said, package store owners were told if they kept the beer sale section partitioned from the liquor section, they could sell beer to the 18 to 21-year-old group.

Appleton police have sought a clarification of the statute and are understood to have several cases of similar nature pending.

The basic questions, as outlined by Greisch and Joyce, are whether package store owners can sell beer to youths 18 to 21 and if they can, under what physical conditions.

Greisch claimed the state law has been changed since the 1948 attorney general's ruling. Present law, he indicated, prohibits minors from even buying a box of peanuts in a package store. Greisch said a hurried, very informal opinion obtained this morning from the attorney general's office indicated this.

Templin and other beer depot and liquor store operators sell more than beer and liquor. Since his arrest, Templin's attorney said, Templin has refused to allow anyone under 21 in his store.

"It would seem that this is an important case and any ruling should be uniform—every store operator should be treated the same," Judge Schmiede said.

"Get a ruling that's up to date, and one which can be applied to the entire state," he told Greisch.

Greisch said he would ask for the ruling immediately, but indicated he had no idea of how long it would take.

Templin's case was adjourned until the ruling is received.

Two More Permits For New Homes Puts Year's Total at 115

Home permits granted to Robert J. Leggett and Merle Wendt by Building Inspector Walter Bogan have raised the total for the year to 115.

Leggett will build a 5-room house with bath at 2415 S. Carpenter street for about $15,000. Wendt will build a 5-room house with bath at 218 E. Hoover avenue for about $11,500.

Adrian Fields received a permit for remodeling the residence at 1037 W. Summer street for about $500.

Orville Muenster received a permit to remodel the garage at 913 W. Commercial street for about $100.

Fined for Conduct

Hyson Stevens, 45, route 2, West DePere, was fined $20 today in municipal court for disorderly conduct. Stevens was arrested after he came home intoxicated Monday and caused a disturbance with his father.

Robs Bank, Throws Bills To Floor, Flees

Detroit — A Young Thomas E. Davis wrestled with his conscience Wednesday. His conscience won, and the 21-year-old Jacksboro, Texas, native now faces a charge of attempted bank robbery.

Davis, worried over a debt, held up a bank on impulse yesterday, police said, but threw his $1,000 loot on the floor saying, "I can't do it. I can't do it." Then he fled only to be quickly captured.

U. S. District Court has ordered him held in $50,000 bond for examination July 8.

At a branch of the National Bank of Detroit, Davis handed Mrs. Alma J. Hadley, 39, a teller, a note threatening her life unless she gave him money.

Throws Money Away

Mrs. Hadley was counting $20 bills. She gave him a batch. Their eyes met through the cage. Then she said he threw the money to the floor with his cry "I can't" and ran out.

On his flight he jostled a customer and begged the latter's pardon. Police caught him a few blocks away.

Davis, discharged from the army last February, said he wanted money to pay college bills and for a trip to his native Texas with his wife, Coe, 21. Mrs. Davis is a recent University of Michigan graduate. University officials said her husband has attended the university but had been asked to leave because he failed to make his grades.

Japan Appeals to Its People To Stop Piracy of Designs

Tokyo — Japan is making a direct appeal to its people to stamp out piracy of foreign designs.

A government exhibit shows 70 examples of Japanese products alongside the foreign originals from which they are copied.

Posters read: "Let us stop imitating." "One sign says: "Piracy and imitation of designs hamper the development and expansion of export trade. It is regrettable that there are quite a few imitations and cases of piracy in Japan."

"Piracy injures Japan's international prestige, causes boycott of Japanese goods, and makes Japanese designers lose interest in making creative efforts."

Various Products

The exhibit exposes imitation of designs from the United States, Germany, Italy, Denmark, France and Britain.

The products include motorcycles, plastics, pencils, radio cabinets, perfume bottles, lipstick holders, flatware, cameras, movie projectors, fountain pens, furniture, glass lamps, toys, and fabrics.

Shinichi Arai, chief of the design section in the ministry of international trade, said: "To increase our foreign trade, we must set up a positive design policy, one which will promote the creation of original designs in the future."

He urged Japanese craft designers to "overcome their unreasonable inferiority complex."

A recent revision in the Japanese patent law denies protection to a Japanese design if it is similar to one that has appeared in a foreign publication.

Rural DePere Man Sentenced for Fight

Earl J. Skenandore, 26, route 2, West DePere, was sentenced today to 60 days in the county jail for disorderly conduct and six months in jail for battering his brother, Zachariah Skenandore, Jr., at their home.

Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiede withheld sentence and placed Skenandore on probation to the state department of public welfare for a year. As a condition of probation, the court ordered Skenandore to stay away from his home and keep the peace.

Skenandore was arrested after a family dispute.

Girl, 14, Slightly Hurt in 2-Car Crash

A 14-year-old girl was slightly injured Thursday afternoon when a car driven by her mother, Mrs. Alfred N. Thomson, 832 W. Parkway boulevard, collided with one driven by Leonard A. Meyer, 62, 1316 N. Appleton street. Injured was Mary E. Thomson.

Mrs. Thomson told police she did not see the stop sign for W. Packard street as she drove north on N. Bennett street. A tree obscured the sign, she said.

Store Manager Sees Boy Shoplift Golf Set In 'Professional Way'

A 14-year-old boy Thursday admitted shoplifting items from Appleton stores, including a 28-inch long golf set which he put in his trousers and zipped under his jacket.

He was caught after the manager of the Berken Piggly Wiggly store, 1331 E. Wisconsin avenue, saw him take the golf set in what he called "a professional way."

Police said the boy admitted stealing items from five or more stores, but was vague about what he had taken. The boy said two others taught him how to shoplift.

The 14-year-old added, "All of the kids cop things."

Strike Ties Up More Shipping

Voyages Cancelled At Ports Along East, Gulf Coasts

New York — A 5-day-old strike by marine engineers today continued its slow paralysis of American-flag shipping in east and gulf coast ports.

Negotiations between the Marine Engineers Beneficial association (MEBA) and the American Merchant Marine institute, the employer group, have been stalled since Wednesday.

Five voyages by Grace lines ships were cancelled yesterday.

The huge liner America's scheduled sailing for Europe with 1,000 passengers late today also was threatened. An MEBA picket line was set up yesterday on the pier where the America is docked. It held up the work of 100 longshoremen for 45 minutes before being removed. But the pickets returned to the pier last night.

Agreement in West

Officials of the International Longshoremen's association said later they would not honor MEBA picket lines. The masters, mates and pilots union, however, announced it would respect the picket lines.

Possibility of the strike spreading to the west coast was removed by a new 3-year contract agreement between two maritime unions and the Pacific Maritime association. The contracts with the marine engineers and the masters, mates and pilots cover about 5,000 union members and 18 shipping companies.

No accurate figures on the number of ships halted by the strike were available. A union spokesman said he assumed more than 100 ships now were berthed at east and gulf coast ports.

Three Added To Faculty of Conservatory

Director Maesch Tells Appointments To Fill Vacancies

Three new teachers have been appointed to the staff of the Lawrence conservatory of

Rehl Miss Hall

Theodore Rehl, presently of the College of Washington, Pullman, Wash., faculty, has been named assistant professor of piano; Mary Kay Hall, newly graduated from Ohio Wesleyan, has been appointed preparatory specialist in piano and organ; and Daniel P. Smith, who graduated from Lawrence two weeks ago, will be lecturer in organ.

Rehl replaces Eleanor Hre. Miss Hall replaces Marilyn Warner, and Smith will take over the organ work of Mrs. Clyde Duncan who will continue to teach harpsichord but wishes to devote more time to her family.

Rehl holds the bachelor and master degree in music from the Oberlin conservatory of music where he was a member of Pi Kappa Lambda and was voted the Hurlbutt award as the outstanding performer in the senior class. He is currently working toward the doctor of musical arts in performance at the University of Southern California.

His public performances have included a guest spot with the Little Orchestra Society of New York, Thomas Scherman, conductor, and he was a finalist in the 1954 National Federation of Music Clubs' Young Artist competition in New York. He has also toured Minnesota, Iowa and South Dakota, giving educational programs in the schools. Rehl's piano teachers have included Leonard Shure, Frank Shaw, Joseph Hungate, Beveridge Webster and Muriel Kerr. The pianist's wife is also an Oberlin graduate in cello, and was a Pi Kappa Lambda. The couple has two children. Miss Hall is an honor graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, held a Presser scholarship for two years, and is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda, Mortar Board, Mu Phi Epsilon and Kappa Kappa Gamma. She has studied organ with Rexford Keller piano with Robert Lawrence has been both piano and organ soloist with the Toledo orchestra, and played in several churches during her college years. Her honors research program was titled "A Musical Program For One Year in An Episcopal Church."

Smith plays at the First Presbyterian church, Kenosha, and earlier held several posts in Appleton. He is a pupil of LaVahn Maesch, and has appeared frequently in public performance, among them as organist in the 1956 "Messiah", and the 1958 commencement concert. He is currently in Texas, representing this district of the American Guild of Organists in a national competition. Later in the summer he will attend an organ institute given at Andover, Mass.
